DEDICATION:
MISS MARY MARGARET MONARCH

Throughout five years at Western Hills, the words, "Stop and return!" have become familiar to typing students under the instruction of Miss Mary Margaret Monarch. As a teacher, Miss Monarch has constantly sought new and creative methods to better relate her subject to students. Because she is a perfectionist, she looks for and encourages the best in others. Possessing a strong sense of humor, she makes efforts to really get to know the people around her, and in the same way, she seeks to involve herself in the life of the school. Mary Margaret Monarch is someone who will always be young, who will always be able to smile and laugh, and who will always care for her students.

Office Staff Provides Guidance

Under the heading of "guidance," come not only the counselors, but secretaries and clerks. Mrs. Julia Bradley, Mr. C. G. Polson, Mr. Raymond Wright, and Mrs. Maynette Dowler, along with Mrs. Barbara Blanks, Mrs. Sallie Carter, Mrs. Bessie Thomas, and Mrs. Gladys Wallace, provided help to students with teacher relations, schedule changes, and information about colleges. Mrs. Billie Prince and Mrs. Madge Prince were kept busy compiling transcripts, and keeping track of the school's records. The library, under the direction of Mrs. Peggy Herring and Mrs. Hazel Craig, provided a place for students to study, gather information, or just read. Mrs. Frances Lipscomb attended to the health of the school.

Communicating Through Literature

Expressing one's ideas was encouraged through writing and exploring the world of literature in English courses. Mrs. Melba Jackson sponsored the Mountain Line, the school newspaper, and the Odyssey, the creative writing magazine. Mr. Eric Mann supervised the annual staff while Mrs. Odessa Coultas continued her work with the student council. An aviation class was offered by Mr. Gerald McCombs and Mrs. Geraldine Karol conducted Plan "A" along with her aide, Mrs. Mary Coddington. Miss Linda Brown became engaged to Coach Richard Allie, and Mrs. Rebecca Tyndall divided her time between English and Latin. Other English teachers included Mrs. Winifred Elliott, Mrs. Bessie Greene, Mrs. Kaymarie McNerney, Miss Karen Noel, Mrs. Linda Prevost, Mrs. Susan Uber, Mrs. Alpha Wenzel, Mrs. Marie Young, and aides Mrs. Bettye Gomez and Mrs. Mary Hart.

Fundamentals Expressed Through New Methods

Extended curriculum encouraged students to further their mathematical development. Algebra was made clear through the efforts of Mr. Neil Boyd, Mr. Andrew Henderson, Mr. Claude Little, Mrs. Maurine Mullins, Mrs. Imogene Williamson, and Mr. Billy Witcher.

Geometry classes were conducted by Mrs. Frances Coon, Mrs. Melva Ezell, and Mrs. Winifred Taylor. Mrs. Mary Barron instructed elementary analysis and trigonometry was taught by Mr. Ed Kahler.

Students Explore Scientific Progress

New techniques in the world of science were dealt with by an adept science department at Western Hills. Miss Marsha Henton, Mrs. Gwen Rogers, Mr. Jimmy Sanders, and Mr. Lloyd Seely worked with freshmen in general physical science courses while Mrs. Ruth Amend, Mr. Rob Dixon, Mr. B. K. Pressley, and Miss Linda Rankin taught biology. Mrs. Mary Lacy instructed chemistry courses and Mrs. Sharland Kirkpatrick directed physics. Education Extends Into Family Life

Exploring matters dealing with family life was the key-note to a successful home economic department. Mrs. Elise Ball worked with cooperative education students and Mrs. Ruth Campbell and Mrs. Carol Feik encouraged child development students. Home and family living was taught by Mrs. Sue McNeill, while Mrs. Carol Towne instructed homemaking classes.

Department Encourages Business Skills

Development of office skills was maintained through the guidance of eight business education instructors. Mrs. Melva Houston and Miss Mary Monarch supervised the progression of their typing students, while Mrs. Mary Foust instructed shorthand. Mrs. Sharon Chitwood worked with vocational office education students. General business courses were taught by Mr. Riley Dunn. Job experience gained credit as a part of courses taught by Mr. Ulysses Cox and Mr. Tom Park.

Fine Arts Develop Creativity

Discovering and developing individual talents was the aim of the art, drama, and music classes. Mr. Ed Curry encouraged his students to openly display their artistic abilities in painting, sculpture, and various crafts. Speech and drama students uncovered communicative skills under the direction of Mrs. Juanita McCulloh. The chorus was conducted by Mrs. Jewell Kelly and the band found its leadership in Mr. Jerry Jones.

History Department Expands

Psychology was offered for the first time this year by Mr. Charles Hall, while Mrs. Dorothy Niesen again instructed Sociology. Mrs. Marjorie Buhl taught Humanities as well as American History. Two new instructors were Mrs. Patricia McQuerry and Mr. Kenneth Walker. Mrs. Candice Metcalf taught World History as did part of our coaching staff, Mr. David Helbing, Mr. Ronnie McLain, and Mr. James Thames. Mr. Barney Cole and Mr. Leo Perkins were American History teachers. Mr. Tom Strother specialized in Government.

Health was taught by Mrs. Shirley Abrams, Mr. Richard Allie, and Mr. Mike Morris. General P.E. courses, as well as tennis and volleyball, were offered by Mrs. Thelma Cole, Mrs. Lea Martin, and Miss Flossie Wallace. Boy's P.E. instructors were Mr. Kenneth Gorman and Mr. Kenneth Porter. Mr. Jimmy Sanders coached freshman basketball.

Industrial Arts Builds Vocational Talent

Establishing a vocational foundation, the industrial arts department aided students in the development of certain skills. Mr. Jack Bishop gave students basic instruction in drafting. Wood lab and metal shop, taught respectively by Mr. William Mazy and Mr. Don Smith, allowed students to create useful items. Plastics, still a new course at Western Hills, was instructed by Mr. Robert Crow.

Council Amends Constitution

Striving to create a more unified student body became the purpose of the 1973-74 Student Council. Leading this year's council was president Mike Carr; assisting the president with his duties were Chris Dills, vice-president; Karen Germany, secretary; and Kerin Capper, treasurer.

Representatives and alternates to the council were elected by second period classes each trimester.

Representatives Inform Students

Setting examples of leadership throughout the school was the job of the class representatives. In the spring of 1973, elections were held to elect two representatives to serve on the student council. They assisted the officers of the executive board in projects, activities, and various goals.

Projects developed and achieved by the council were the distribution of Student Directories and a competitive Christmas project in which necessary articles were arranged into gift sets and sent to John Peter Smith Hospital.

Cheerleaders Inspire Outstanding Spirit

Enthusiasm, imagination, and ability were the key factors involved in the efforts of the 1973-74 cheerleaders to promote spirit and lead pep rallies. Various skits helped enliven pep rallies, many of which involved other students. The "spirit ladder," was an effective way to raise spirit, and "50's Day" initiated by the cheerleaders, was quite a success, with a great number of students and faculty members participating. Credit for the fact that Western Hills led Fort Worth high schools in pre-game ticket sales for most of the season, was perhaps due to the skills of these dedicated individuals.

Cheerleaders Perpetuate Cougar Spirit

Excitement, which often accompanies the energetic undertaking of a new responsibility, was evident in this year's freshman cheerleaders. With guidance from Mrs. Thelma Cole, cheerleader advisor, both junior varsity and freshman cheerleaders fullfilled their responsibilities of cheering at games in the various fields of sport, and assisting in cheers at the pep rallies.

Enthusiasm — Key to Spirit

Promoting spirit fell under the leadership of Mrs. Lea Martin and the Governor's Board of the Spirit Club. With a membership of over 200, some students displayed their artistic ability by decorating posters for pep rallies and athletic activities. Others demonstrated their loyalty with their green and gold uniforms while cheering the Cougars to victory.

Two mascots were elected during the fall trimester to encourage and promote school spirit at pep rallies and football games.

NHS Alters Prerequisite

Encouraging worthy leadership, creating enthusiasm for scholarship, stimulating a desire to render service, and furthering the development of character were the outstanding attributes of National Honor Society members.

Presenting Awards Night and assisting the PTA with College Night were sponsors Mrs. Ruth Amend, Mrs. Frances Coon, Mrs. Alpha Wenzel, and Mr. Raymond Wright. Selected in their junior year, 52 seniors maintained a 3.5 grade point average for five quarters and a citizenship average not lower than an E. The remaining seniors and outstanding juniors who met these requirements later in the year were inducted into the society during the spring trimester.

Under the competent direction of Mr. Jerry Jones, the one hundred-four instrumentalists of this year's Cougar Band received top rating in marching. This marked the first time in WHHS history that the band has received such a rating.

After two weeks of summer band, they raised money for their December appearance in the Houston Astrodome. Benbrook proclaimed November 16 as Western Hills Band Day.

Outstanding performances at pep rallies and football game halftimes were supplemented with the city marching contest, the regional marching contest, the Benbrook parade, and the Stock Show parade.

During the winter trimester, outstanding students were selected for the Symphonic band and performed at school assemblies and concerts.

Leading the band to victory through the many talents of individuals was the goal of the drum majors and drum majorettes.

Drum majors Relf Fenley and Steve Hench spent a week on the campus of SMU working with baton twirlers from all over Texas. Majorettes Ellen Brown, Lisa Moore, Ellen Pledger, and Cindy Tilley received two individual first division medals and a second place team trophy in the Paschal twirling contest.

Assisting Mr. Jerry Jones in leading and directing the Cougar band were Lynda Tallant, band captain; and Vincent Cruz, band lieutenant. Through these combined efforts, unity and leadership became factors in reaching their goal.

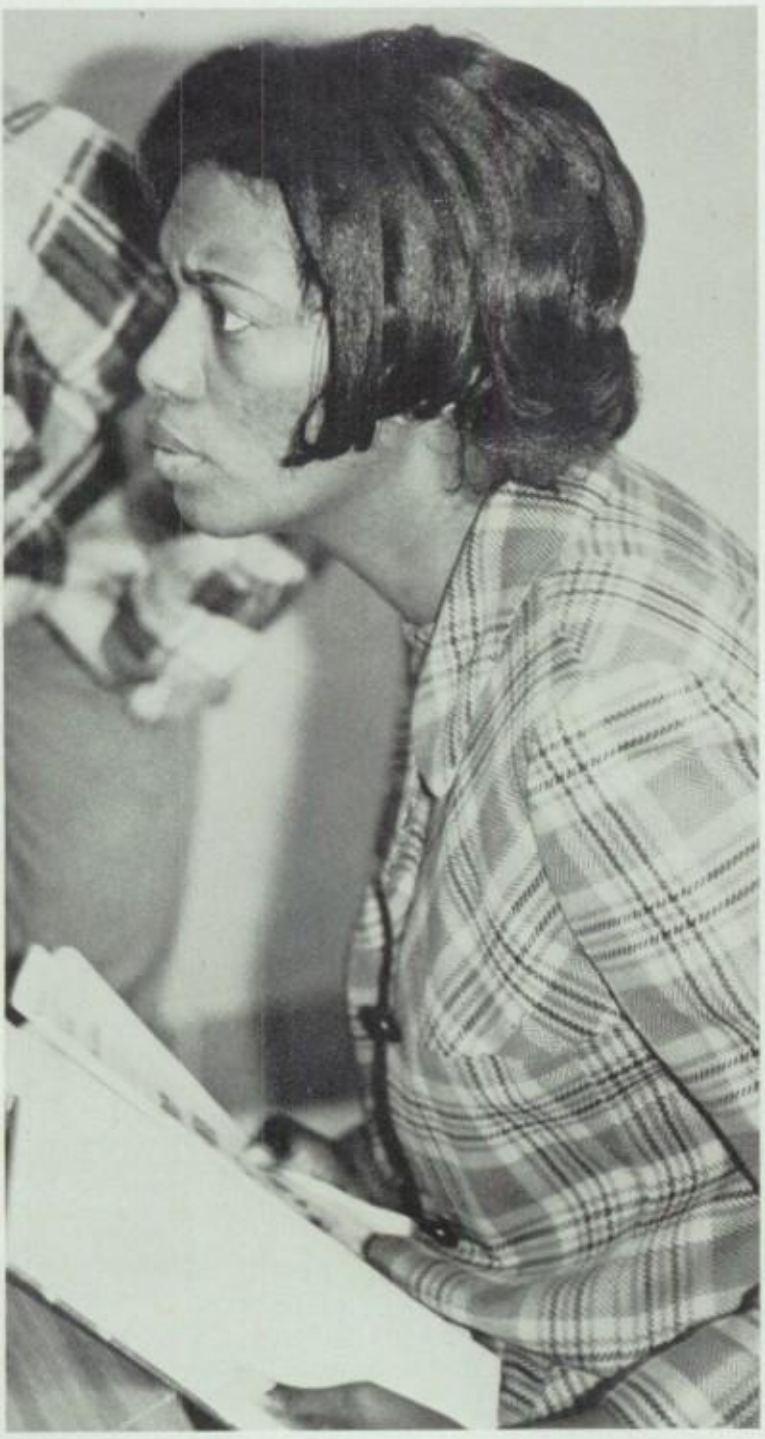
Chorus Begins New Tradition



The 1973-74 Cougar Chorus consisted of 35 students led by Mrs. Jewell Kelly. One of the highlights of the year was a trip to TWC where they performed. The sophomores and freshmen were fortunate to be entertained by the chorus at a fall concert in November. The chorus also gave their traditional Christmas program in December.

A new tradition was begun this year at Western Hills when the chorus elected a chorus sweetheart and Mr. Music. These honors were bestowed on Anita Blaylock and Freddie Brigham after the election at the end of the first trimester.

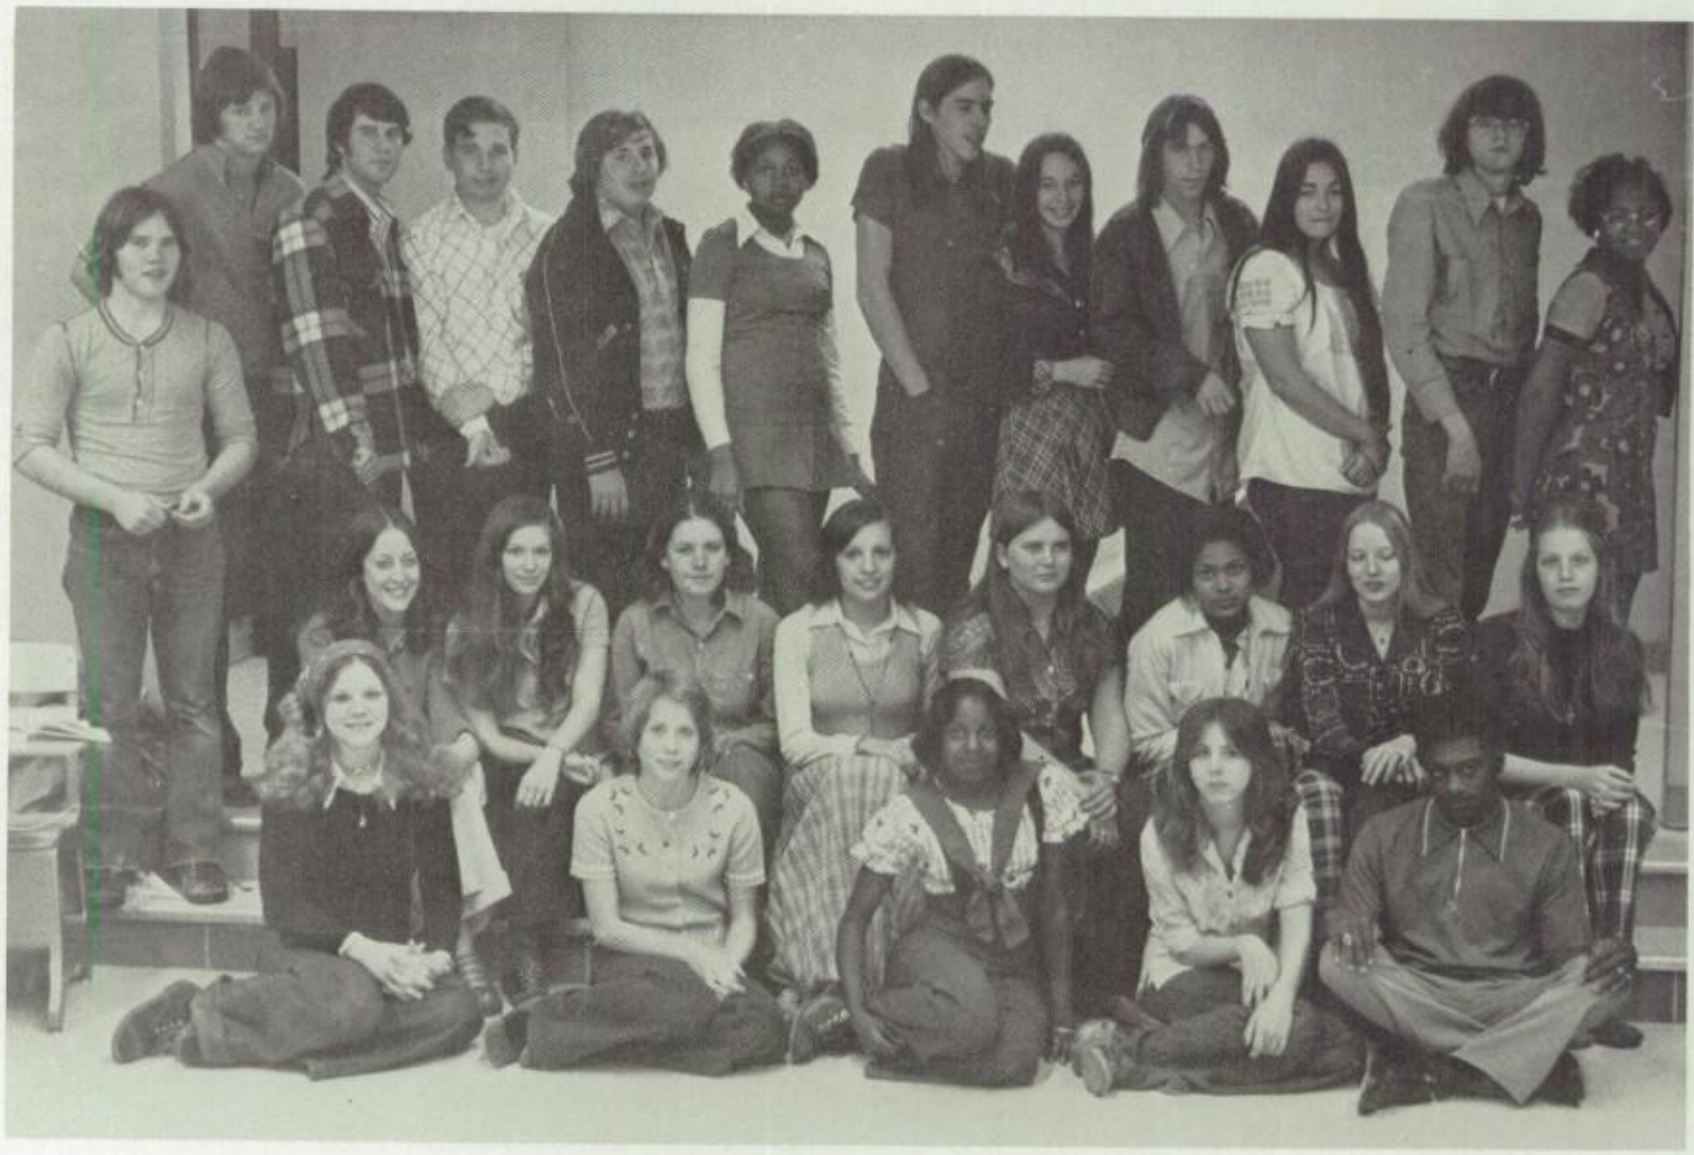
Drama Sponsors Cougar Capers

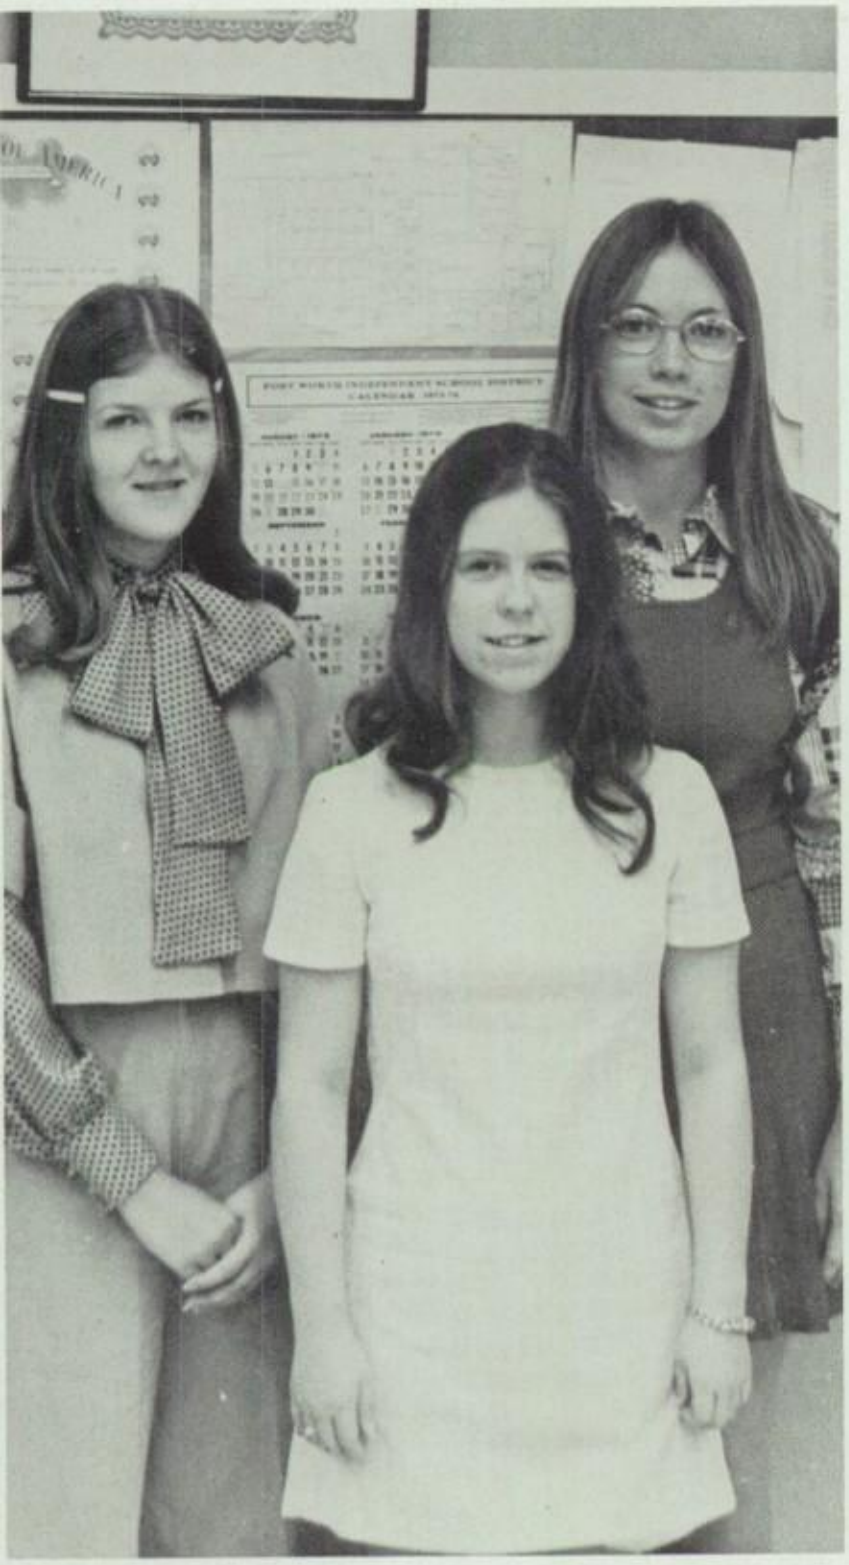
Promoting and encouraging the art of drama and acting was the responsibility of the Drama Club. President Terry Gann, vice-president Mary Smith, secretary Rubye English, and treasurer Judy Blue, under the sponsorship of Mrs. Juanita McCulloh, were in charge of all activities. The Drama Club co-sponsored the Cougar Capers. They participated by selling "Pink Things" and ushering at the night performance.

Pictured below are only a few of the many enthusiastic drama members, all of which participated in the various drama activities throughout the year.

RIGHT: Mrs. Juanita McCullon considers last minute details for the Cougar Caper. BELOW: Fourth period drama members consisted of various talents.



FTA: "Caring About the Future"



Learning about the teaching profession; its responsibilities, and its important role in democracy, was the responsibility of the future teachers.

With the sponsorship of Mrs. Frances Coon, the Future Teachers of America met on the second and fourth Thursdays of each month. Teaching qualities of personality, character, and leadership were developed.

Clubs Place Emphasis On Foreign Cultures

Russian, a newly introduced language at Western Hills, fast became an elective interesting to all that participated. In its second year, sponsor Mrs. Rebecca Stevenson not only emphasized the Russian language, but the significance of Asian culture.

During Spirit Week the Russian club was awarded second place for their Wizard of Oz decorations using the theme. "Follow the Yellow Brick Road to Victory." In February they participated in the Cougar Capers with a song and dance routine.

Blending the cultures of foreign lands with our own, was the goal of Mrs. Brigitta Brandt and the German club.

During the year, the club held a picnic at Benbrook Lake, collected toys for distribution by firemen, sponsored a German dinner for the faculty, and visited an Elementary school to give a German lesson. Money making projects consisted of selling candy and holding a car wash.

Club Studies French Culture

Furthering the appreciation of French culture was the purpose of the French Club, or "Le Cercle de Français." Sponsors Mrs. Carol Absher and Miss Carol Bond assisted students in planning their activities throughout the year. These activities included singing French Christmas carols and a dinner of French food held at the school.

Future Homemakers of America is an organization which endeavors to present to students the variety of roles that the homemakers play at home and in the community. Members, who were recruited from all the different home-making classes, also learned about the wide range of careers available in the field of home economics.

The five different chapters of FHA were each headed by a different home-making teacher. The sponsors, Mrs. Elise Ball, Mrs. Carol Feik, Mrs. Ruth Campbell, Mrs. Sue McNeill, and Mrs. Carol Towne, set aside one class period a month for club meetings.

Students Study Homemaking Careers

Various FHA club activities included many charity projects. One chapter collected and repaired toys which were given to the All Church Home for Children. Another gave a Valentine's party for the kindergarten children at the Child Study Center, and several chapters visited and took gifts to rest homes.

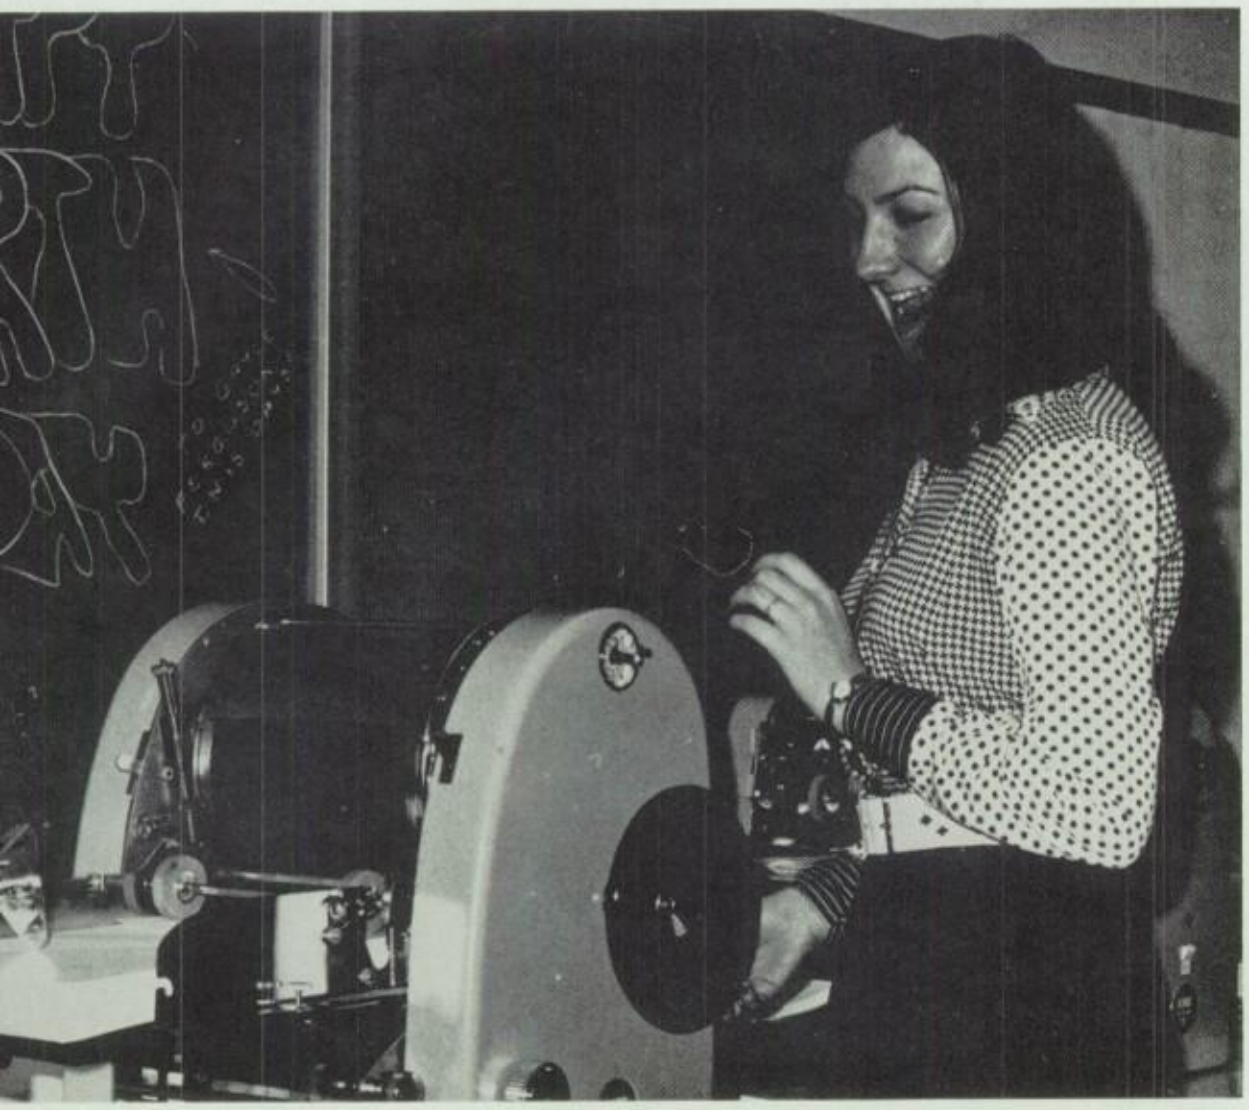
Students Develop Office Techniques



Improving office skills and gaining insight in the various fields of office jobs was the purpose of OEA. Under the guidance of Mrs. Sharon Chitwood, the club publicized the vocational office program in and out of school while working to better the employer-employee relationship. Members of the club raised money for an OEA dinner which was held in March at Southwest High School.

Business Clubs Train on the Job

Developing leadership qualities in students and teaching them to function as worthy persons in our society was the purpose of DECA and VICA. Under the sponsorship of Mr. Tom Parks and Mr. Ulysses Cox, DECA and VICA members received credit while holding jobs outside of the school curriculum. Learning by on-the-job-training, students were introduced to the complex functions of the business world.

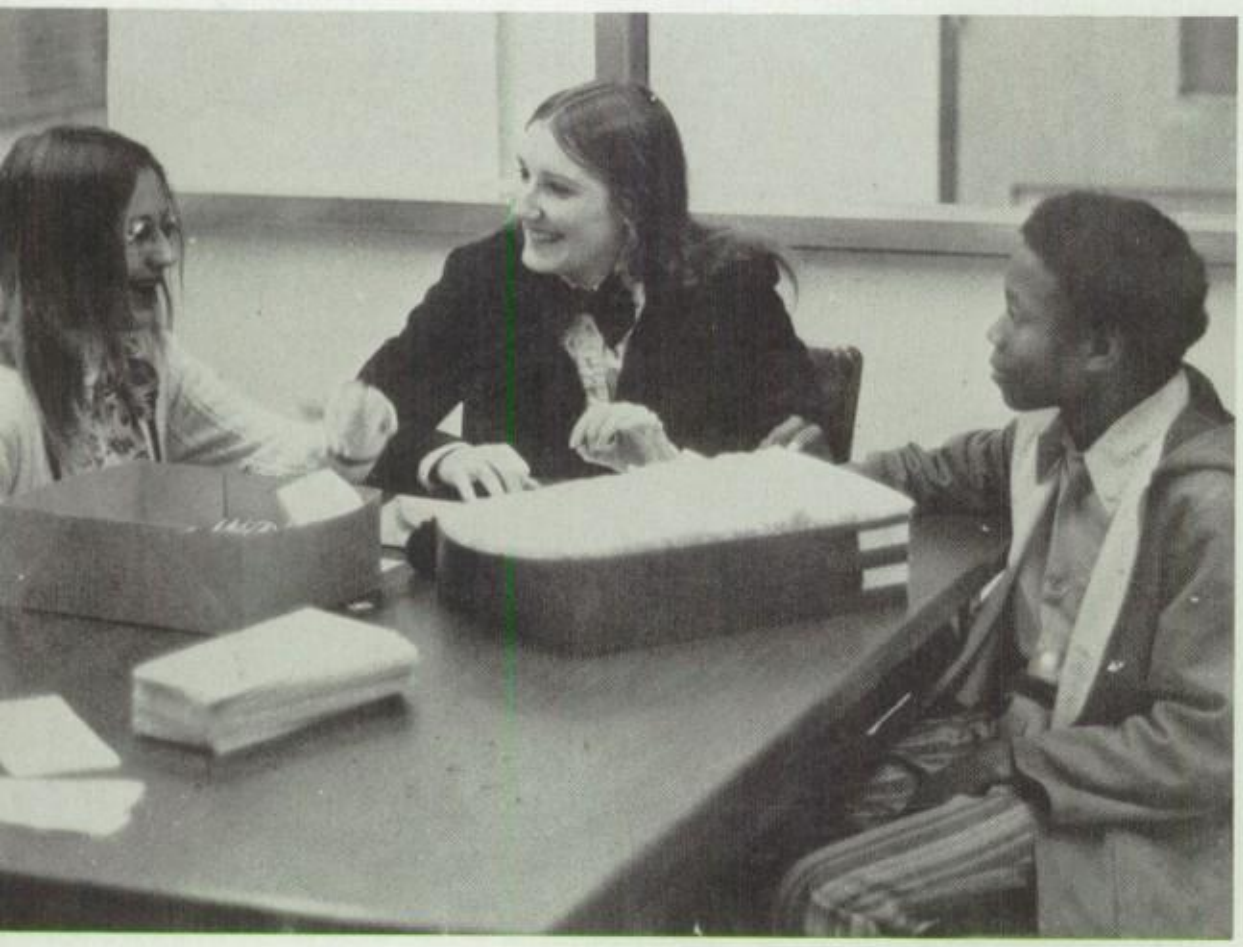
Center Receives Volunteer Work



Accepting the responsibilities of sponsoring the Red Cross Youth Program, Mrs. Maynette Dowler endeavored to create a growing interest in the community for service. The major project achieved by the club was serving on a regular basis at the Western Hills Convalescent Center. Activities performed by youth volunteers were purely in an entertainment capacity with any other duties being left to the home's staff.

Club Develops Skills

A newly organized club at Western Hills was the Camera Club. Under the sponsorship of Mr. Eric Mann, club members gained knowledge in proper darkroom techniques at meetings held every other Wednesday. Projects undertaken by the club included taking and selling pictures for the Valentine's Dance. Proceeds from this project were used in replenishing chemicals, equipment, and film.

Students Equalize Representation

Organized for the second consecutive year was the student advisory committee with the sponsorship of Mrs. Odessa Coultas. Meeting once a month, a committee of ten members selected by the Student Council's executive board discussed methods by which to equalize representation and improve communication in the school.

RIGHT: Mrs. Odessa Coultas discusses results of a meeting with chairman Dennis Lacy. BELOW: Members of the student advisory committee were: Wanda McKinney, Scott Spiegal, J. W. Briscoe, Jan Riach, Dennis Lacy, Paul Cullum, and Margaret Torres.

Rodeo Club Visits National Finals

Activities of the Rodeo Club, a non-school sponsored organization, included a trip to Oklahoma City to see the National Finals Rodeo and a club sponsored dance given at the Elks Lodge. Under the leadership of Mr. Don Smith, club members gave a rodeo in April as well as participated in other rodeos during the year.

Young Life Participation Grows

Young Life was one of several organizations which a large number of students participated in, but which was not directly affiliated with the school. The weekly meetings were led by Howard Baker and Kirk Quackenbush, who were assisted by Christi Vinsant, Raye Anne Crittenden, and Sue Palmer; all students of TCU. Each meeting included songs, skits, and a "talk" based on some verses from the Bible.

Highlights of this years activities were a ski trip to Colorado at Christmas, a summer camp, a retreat Halloween weekend, and another over the Easter holidays.

Club Members Take Trip to Austin

Tri-Hi-Y, the third non-school sponsored organization on campus, is affiliated with YMCA. In January, eight girls from Western Hills' Tri-Hi-Y took a four day trip to Austin where students from all over the state were allowed to try their hand at running the government. Another planned activity was a volleyball game against the Western Hills' volleyball team.

Correlating individuals with different backgrounds, interests, and hobbies into a bi-monthly school newspaper was the task of Mrs. Melba Jackson, the editorial staff, and the journalism classes. Editors for each trimester were Chris Dills, Debbie Rodriguez, and Karen Germany.

The Daily Debris, an interschool newsletter published Tuesdays through Fridays, gave daily announcements and interesting tidbits of information. SNATCH played for a benefit concert in December given by journalism classes for charity funds at Harris Hospital.

Staff Survives Sixth Volume

Capturing the memories, activities, and misfortunes of the past year into this year's annual was the responsibility of the 1973-74 CATAMOUNT staff. Under the direction of Mr. Eric Mann and editor Cathy Foreman, the staff was divided into different divisions with each having a section editor. Early in the year, the theme, color, and dedicatee of the annual were decided upon by the entire staff.

As in past years, the CATAMOUNT staff held the elections for Mr. and Miss WHHS and class favorites. Staff members were also in charge of annual order day and individual class pictures.

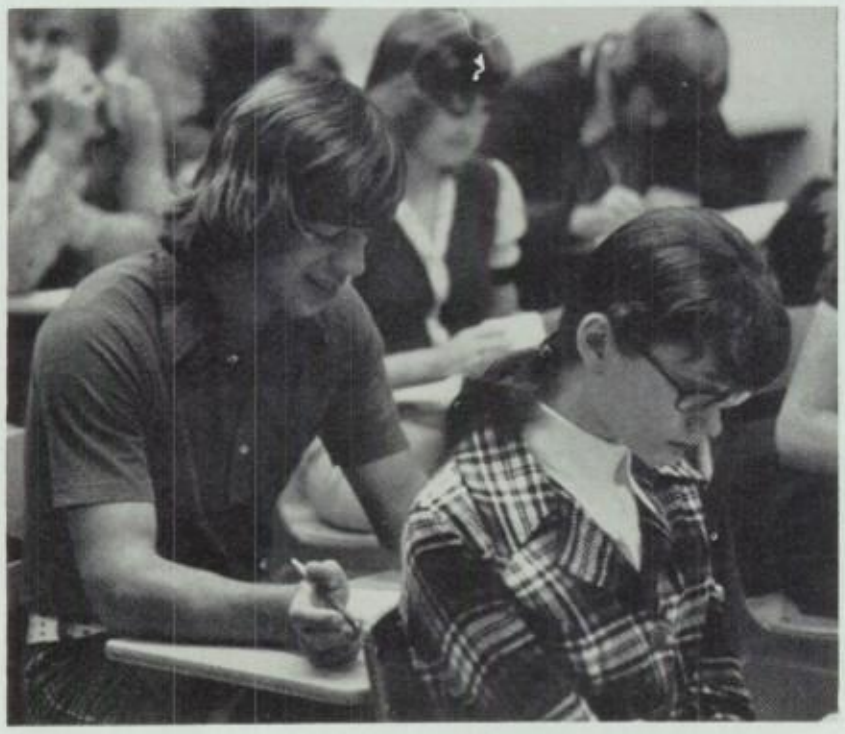
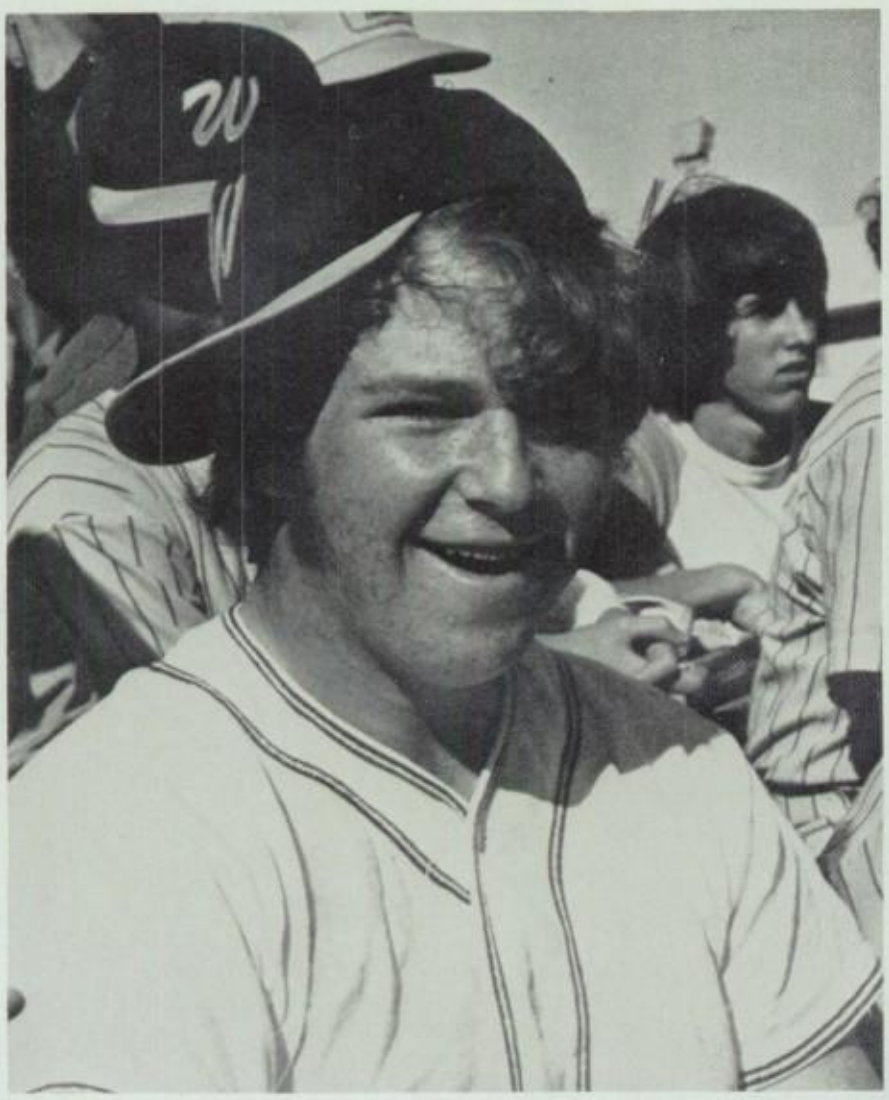
EXPRESSIONS



Mr. and Miss WHHS

Sylvia Komatsu and Randy Higdon were elected Mr. and Miss WHHS in the school-wide election held in December. A cheerleader for four years, Sylvia Komatsu was elected Homecoming Queen in the fall. In previous years she was honored as junior homecoming princess, track queen, and freshman favorite. An active member of the student council and the National Honor Society, she also participated on the staffs of the Mountain Line and the Odyssey. Sylvia is interested in writing, photography, art, and has recently taken up parachuting. She spends time reading and listening to music, and she hopes someday to become a lawyer.

Senior class president Randy Higdon has played both varsity football and baseball for Western Hills. Elected class favorite and Mr. Spirit in his junior year, he was a finalist or the spirit award again this year. Vice-president on the governor's board of the spirit club, Randy also participated in Young Life and Campaigners. In the future, he would like to play professional baseball; and he hopes to go to college on a scholarship.



Four Honored as Finalists

Cindi Dorough, Chris Dills, (opposite page) Marla Ball, and Mike Carr (this page) were finalists in the Mr. and Miss WHHS elections. Cindi Dorough has served as a cheerleader during her junior and senior years. A member of the National Honor Society, she was selected by the basketball team to represent them as their queen in the West Side Lion's Club Tournament. In February, Cindi was chosen as Western Hills' Mardi Gras nominee, and previously she was honored as sophomore favorite and junior football princess. A participant in Young Life activities, she enjoys cooking, swimming, and tennis.

Vice-president of the student council, finalist Chris Dills was a three year member of the varsity track team and the varsity cross country team. He served as editor of the Mountain Line during the fall trimester of this year. With journalism as his major interest, Chris is also interested in advertising, photography, and Spanish. He worked with the United High School Council and was a member of the Camera Club.

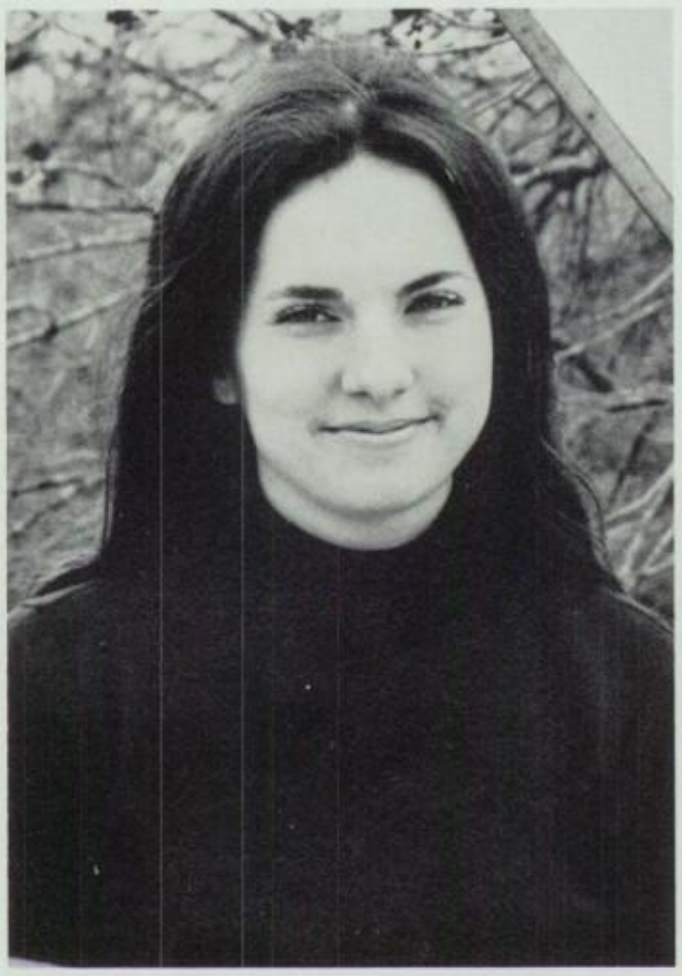
Finalist Marla Ball was also recipient of this year's D.A.R. award. A cheerleader during her sophomore and junior years, the football team honored her as their queen in the fall of this year. She was elected class favorite as a junior, favorite finalist as a sophomore, and she has been a princess in the homecoming court for three years. Marla enjoys watching sports, as well as dancing. She plans on working for a degree in psychology.

Student council president Mike Carr was also a finalist for Mr. WHHS. Serving as the youth representative for the Department of Transportation, he was captain of the cross country team and a state qualifier in the same. He was also the district mile champion. Mike was a member of the National Honor Society and he is interested in rock climbing, swimming, camping, and skiing. He also participated in Boy Scouts and Explorers.

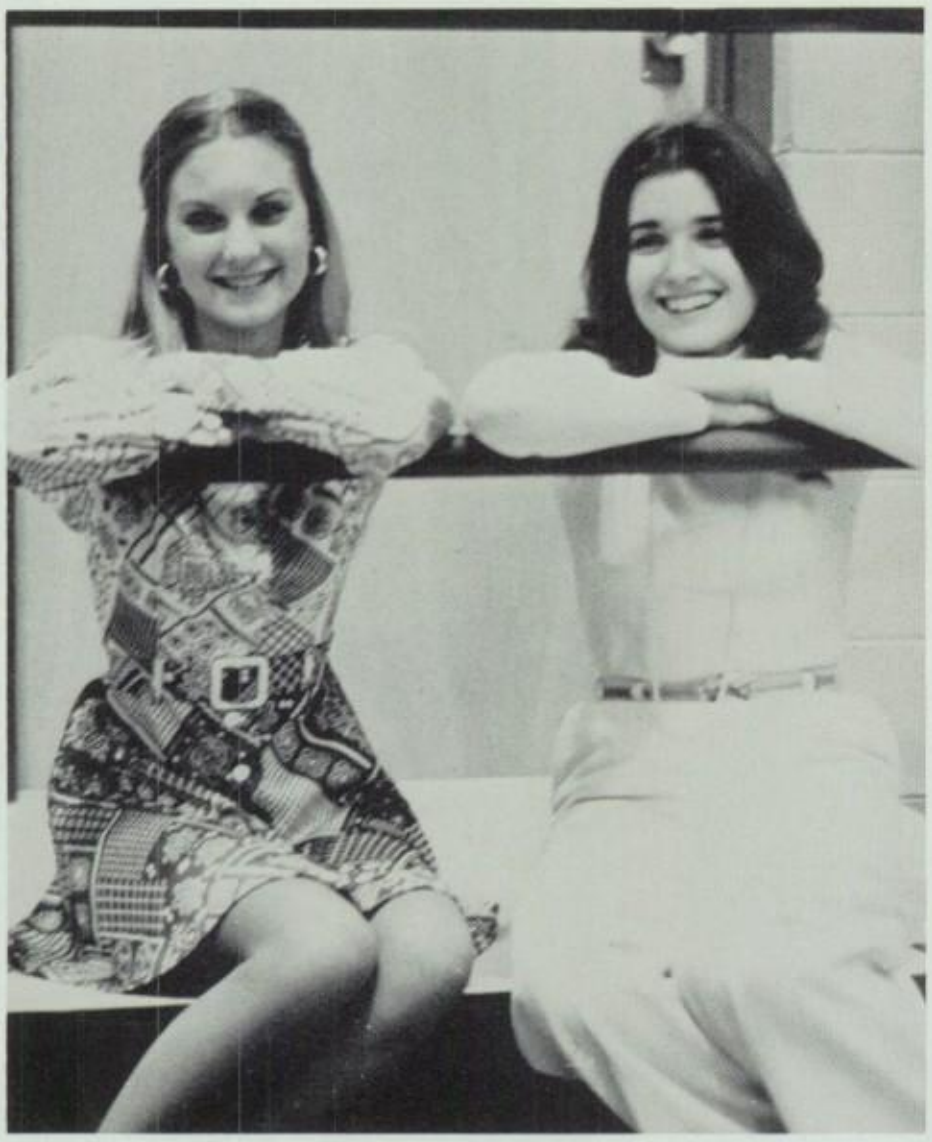
Students Recognized for Honors

Special recognition in various areas was accorded to several members of the senior class. Officers for the class of 1974, the D.A.R. honoree, the National Merit finalist, the Stripling Teen Board representatives, and Western Hills' Mardi Gras nominee were among those recognized.

RIGHT: The class of '74 was sponsored by Mrs. Mary Foust. BELOW: Officers for the senior class were: Cindi Dorough, secretary; Randy Higdon, president; and Miriam Slaughter, vice-president.



LEFT: Selected by the Daughters of the American Revolution, Marla Ball was honored for academic excellence and citizenship. BELOW: Mike Wood was a finalist for the National Merit Scholarship.



LEFT: Representatives from Western Hills to the Stripling Teen Board were Donna Watson and Vicki Smatlak. ABOVE: Cindi Dorough was the representative to Nolan High School's Mardi Gras Ball in February.

Janet Johnson and Lowell Franklin were elected by the senior class as their favorites. Janet Johnson has been a cheerleader at Western Hills for four years. An active participant in Young Life and Campaigners, she was elected secretary of the National Honor Society. Janet is interested in dancing and music as well as athletic activities. She likes swimming, horseback riding, tennis, snow skiing, and being outdoors.

A member of the varsity basketball team for the last two years, Lowell Franklin was selected district 4A-10's Player of the Year in February. His classmates also honored him by electing him Mr. Spirit. Lowell enjoys basketball and meeting new people. He hopes to go to Kansas University next year.

Finalist Karen Germany has served as secretary of the student council, editor of the Odyssey magazine, spring editor of the Mountain Line, and as an associate editor on the Catamount staff. She enjoys Young Life and plans to go to Texas A&M.

Steve Phillips was a member of the varsity baseball team for three years. He enjoys motorcycle riding and playing the guitar, as well as participating in Young Life and Campaigners.

Varsity football player Randal Anderson was named to the second all-district football team. A member of the senior steering committee, he participated in track and field, also.

Anita Blaylock was honored as Miss Spirit and Choir Sweetheart this year. President of the spirit club, she was also involved with the student council and the student advisory board.

Plutarch

Stovall Named Top

Western Hills was given a special honor this year when our own principal, Mr. P. B. Stovall was named top state administrator by the Texas Classroom Teachers Association. Mr. Stovall came to Western Hills four years ago from McLean Middle School to accept the administrative duties involved in leading this high school.

A man whose door is always open, Mr. Stovall guided Western Hills in a concerned and conscientious manner. His belief in the value of education was shown as he involved himself in both student and faculty activities throughout the year. Mr. Stovall has done an outstanding job in undertaking the responsibilities that accompany the title of principal.

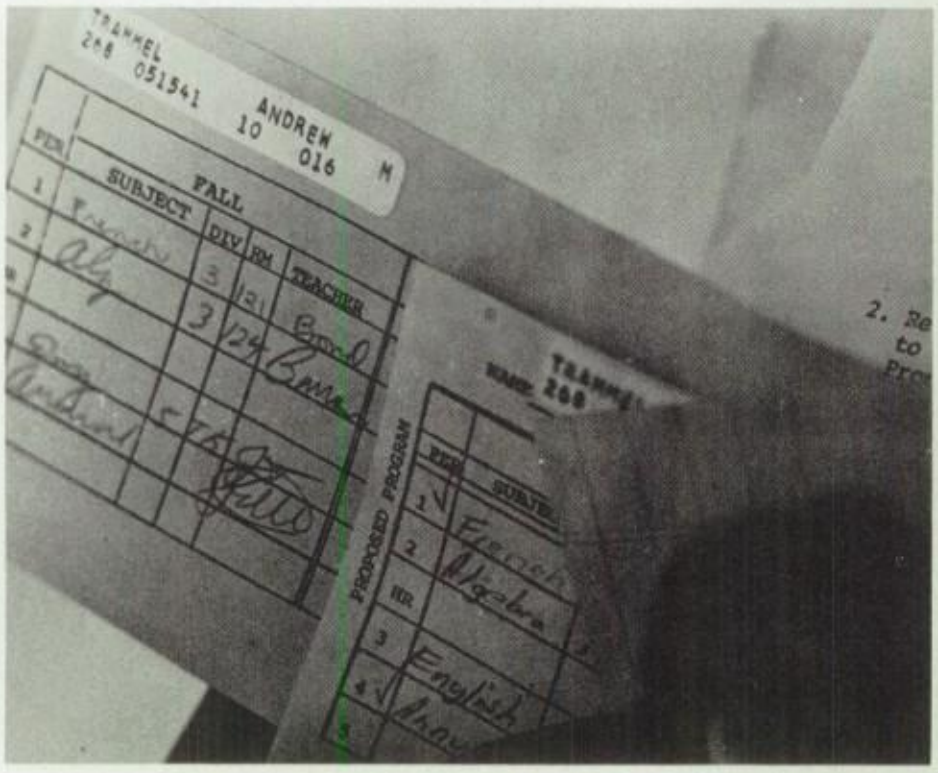
Registration Begins First Trimester



August 23 and 24 marked the first of three registration sessions to take place at Western Hills this year. Freshman and seniors were the first, followed by sophomores and juniors in signing up for classes and teachers. The new trimester system gave students a wider selection of subjects ranging from psychology and sociology to home economics cooperative education and humanities. August 27 was the first official day of school.

Council Hosts Sixth Annual Howdy Dance

To welcome new and returning students, the Student Council sponsored the sixth annual Howdy Dance in the school cafeteria. The group Big Spring set the mood that began the year's social activities. Chaperones and refreshments were furnished by the PTA. The dance provided students with the opportunity of beginning new friendships and renewing old ones.

Cougars Re-Trace Tracks to Odessa

Saturday morning, September 15, two Spirit Club sponsored buses departed from the school parking lot headed towards Odessa for the second annual Cougar-Panther football game. The buses stopped at a roadside park and students were able to enjoy sack lunches. Before the game, everyone ate hamburgers for dinner. The game resulted in defeat but the Cougar spirit remained high. Tired, students re-boarded the buses for the six-hour return trip home.

Spirit Week Climaxed by Exes Return

Beginning Monday, October 15, the activities of Spirit Week blended into the weekend events of Homecoming. Monday was designated as black and white shoes day. Gold was worn by students on Tuesday and green was worn on Wednesday. Cheerleaders sold ribbons on both days. Green and gold were worn on Thursday. Friday was the traditional mum day. Students and exes participated in the fourth period pep rally. Saturday evening, the band marched in the annual Benbrook Parade.

Sylvia Komatsu Selected Homecoming Queen

Elections prior to Spirit Week were conducted by the Student Council to select the 1973 Homecoming Court. Nominations and finalists were chosen by the student body. The court was presented for the first time during the half-time of the Cougar-Jacket football game.

TOP: Senior princess Marla Ball and escort Dan Legby are seen with queen Sylvia Komastu and escort Chris Dills, and senior princess Miriam Slaughter and escort John Cason. ABOVE: Junior princesses Kristi Brashears and escort Mark Luttrell and Judy Scott with escort David Pressley were selected to represent their class. RIGHT: Queen Sylvia Komatsu and escort Chris Dills were presented during half-time.

New Traditions Established

Decorations for Homecoming and Spirit Week were done by different organizations for the first time this year. The cheerleaders were awarded first place for their decorations followed by the Russian and Drama Clubs. October 19 was the traditional mum day. The week ended in the welcoming home of many exes and anticipation of the first district game.

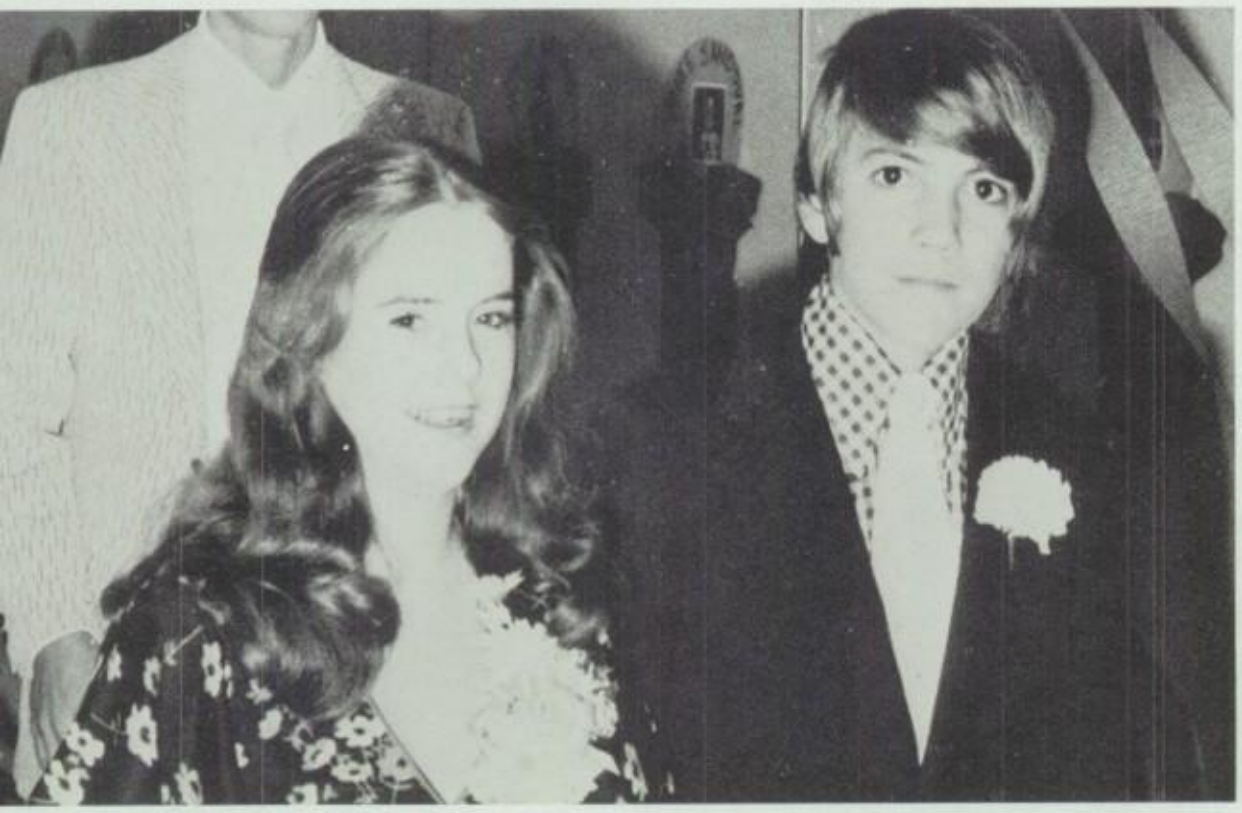
Long Time Comin' Sets Mood for Dance



Ending a week of activities and traditions, the Homecoming Dance provided a time for the greeting of exes. Held October 20 in the cafeteria, those present moved to the music of the group Long Time Comin' and enjoyed refreshments provided by the PTA.

TOP: Larry Lane and Karen Foster walk down the decorated hall towards the dance floor. LEFT: Jacque Kauffman and Tony Balthazar dance to the sound of Long Time Comin'. ABOVE: Lori Neau and Steve Wood enjoy the refreshments provided by the PTA.

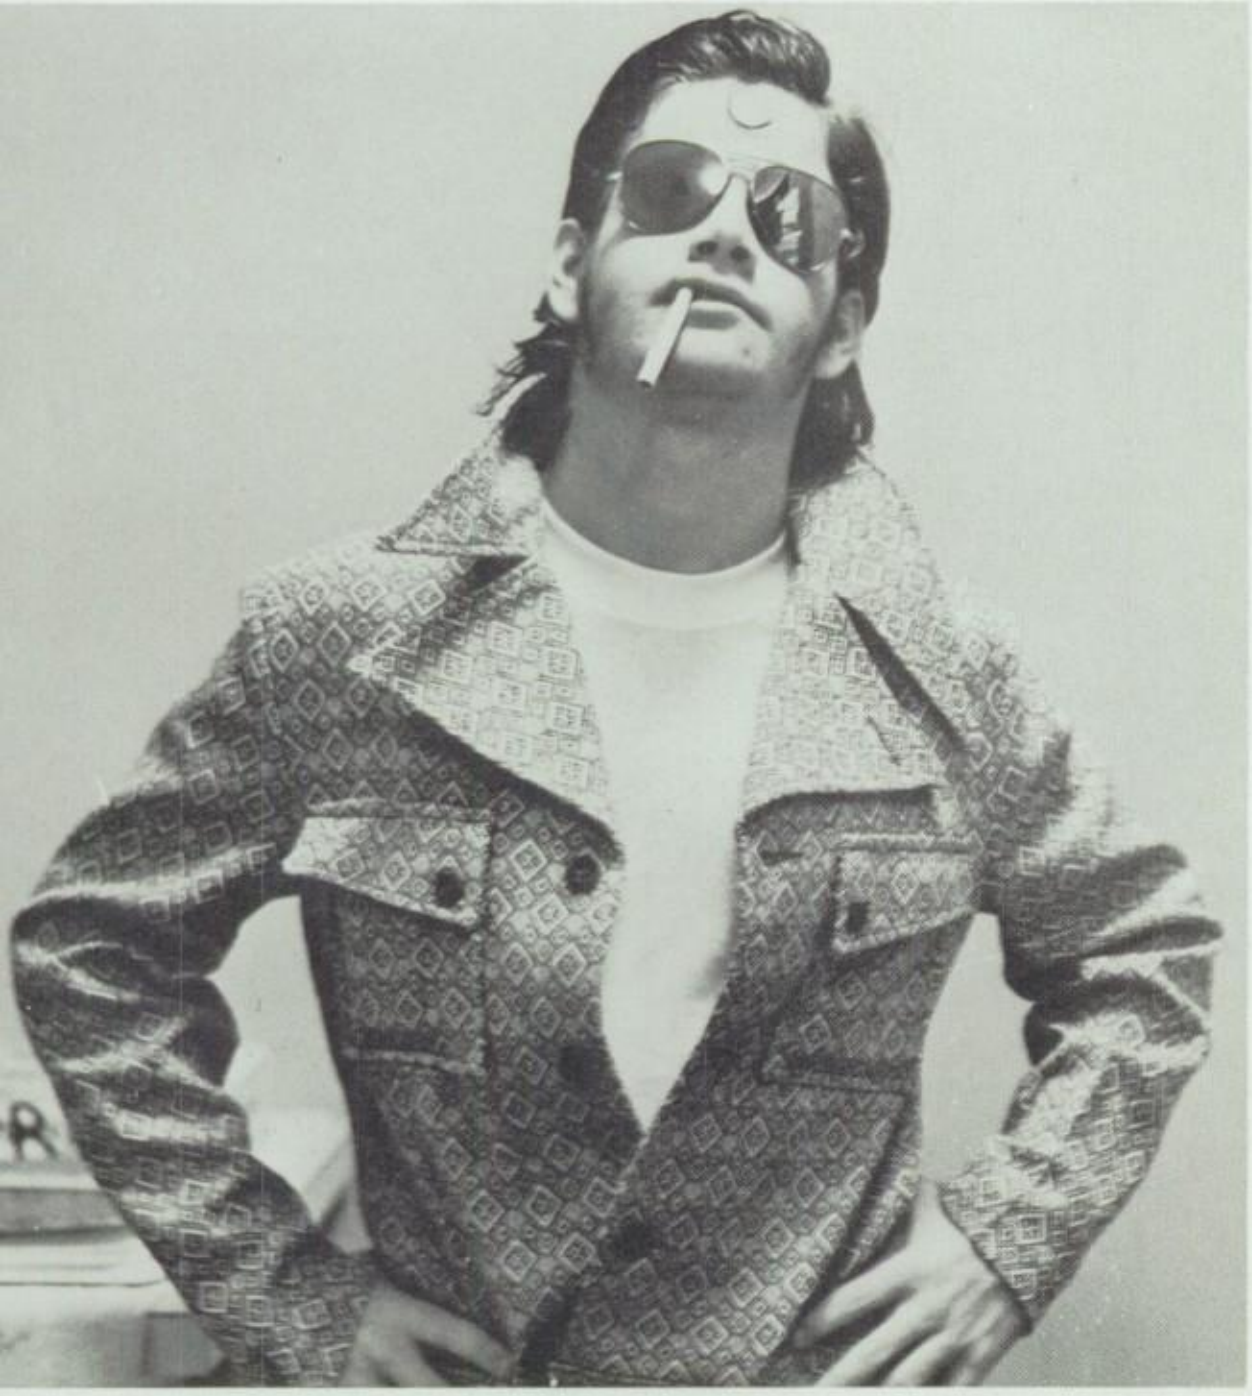
Cougars Revive Bobby Socks Era



Fifties Day was held at Western Hills on November 15 for the first time. Students came in attire that was classic of the 1950's on that day. A pep rally was held during second period. Prizes were given to the best-dressed boy and girl in each class along with the best-dressed male and female faculty members.

Various Activities Color Fall Trimester

Students discovered that first trimester activities included everything from trash can painting to showing their spirit. The Student Council instigated the can painting to provide the school with some outdoor garbage cans. Seniors wore their jerseys to the last football game of the season and were permitted onto the field at the end of the game. The Mayor of Benbrook declared Band Day in honor of the Marching Band and their outstanding contribution to the Benbrook Parade.

Varsity Selects Tourney Sweethearts

Varsity basketball players chose Cindi Dorough and Kathryn Williams to represent the team at two tournaments this year. Kathryn was selected as TWC Sweetheart and Cindi was chosen as Lion's Club Tourney Sweetheart. Ormathell Washington and Judy Scott were runners-up respectively. The team presented both girls to the student body at the December pep rally.

Capers Feature Various Talents

Under the direction of Mrs. Juanita McCulloh, the fourth annual Cougar Capers was performed February 5 and 6. This year's show revolved around the theme "Around the World in 80 Minutes." Daytime shows were held second period on the two consecutive days with the night performance on February 6. This year's program had entertainment ranging from folk singing to gymnastic routines. A special souvenir program given to those who attended the night performance included pictures of all the acts.

Favorites Revealed at Valentine's Dance

"Love is a Kaleidoscope" was designated as the theme for this year's Valentine's Dance. The dance was held on February 16 in the school cafeteria with music provided by Hydra.

According to tradition, the class favorites were presented by Catamount editor, Cathy Foreman. Seniors Janet Johnson and Lowell Franklin; juniors Kerin Capper and Layne Beavers; sophomores D'Ann Reed and Kevin Newby; and freshmen Susan Capper and Jim Churchill were announced as this year's favorites.

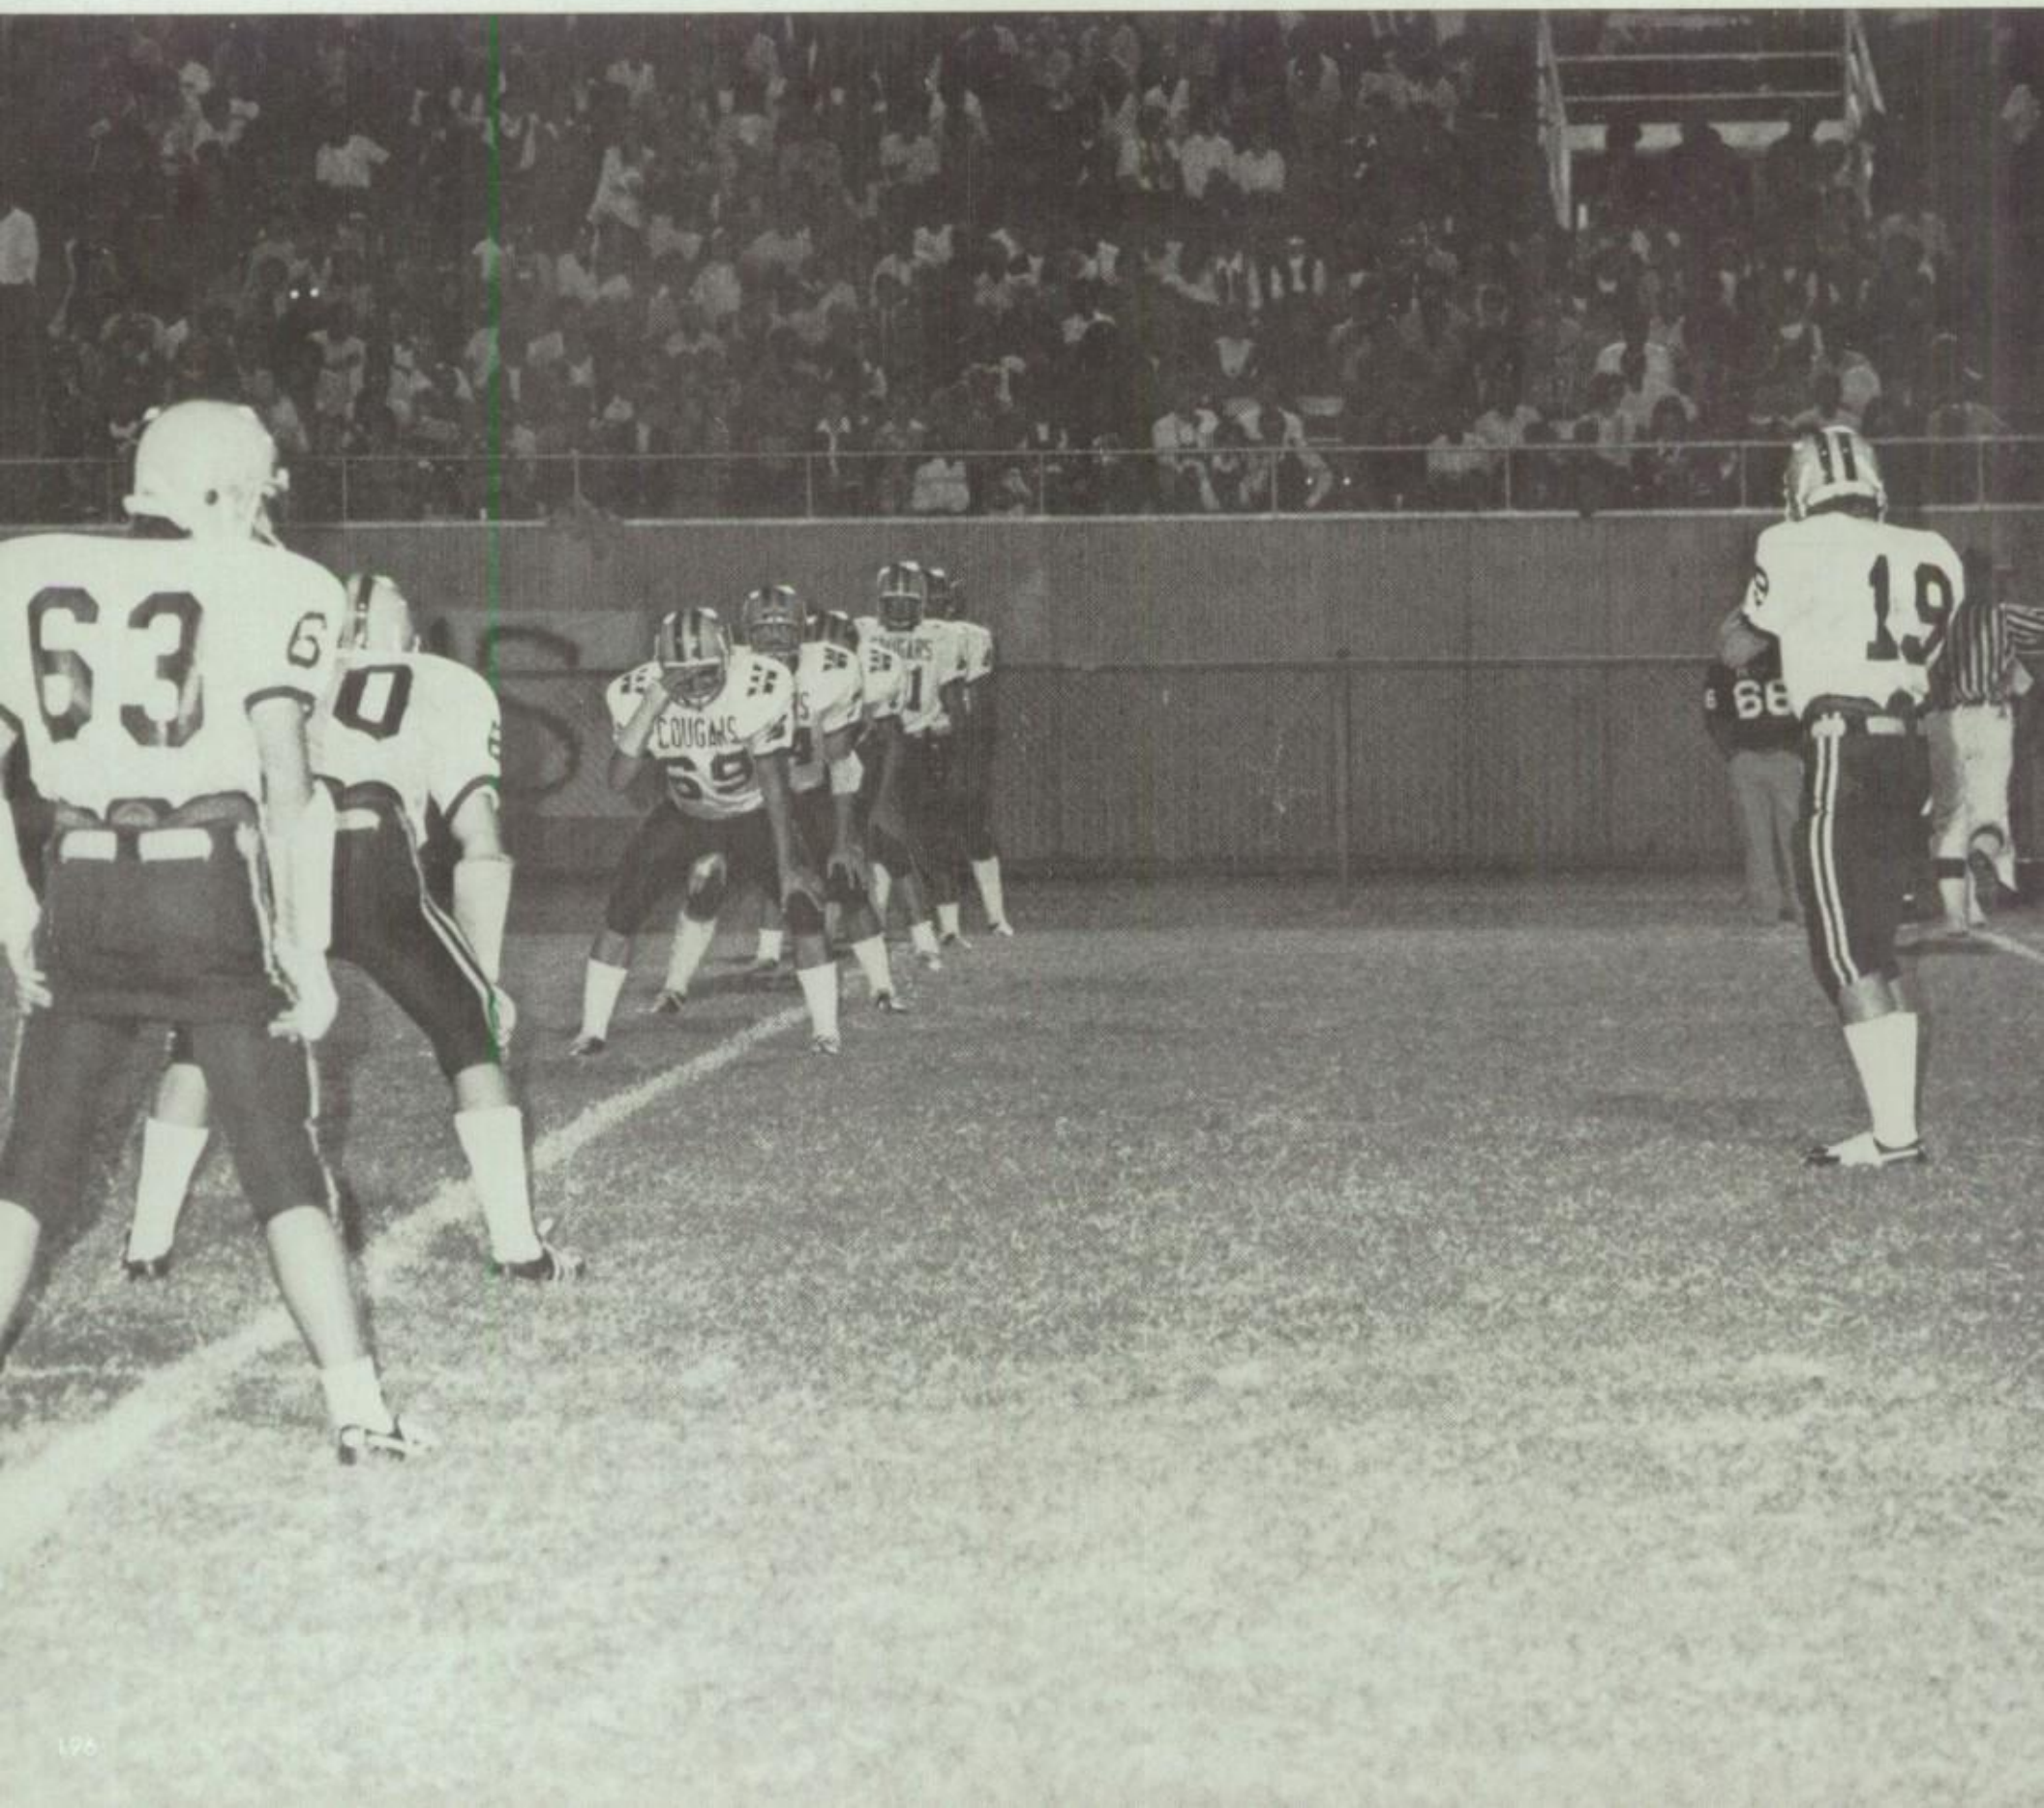
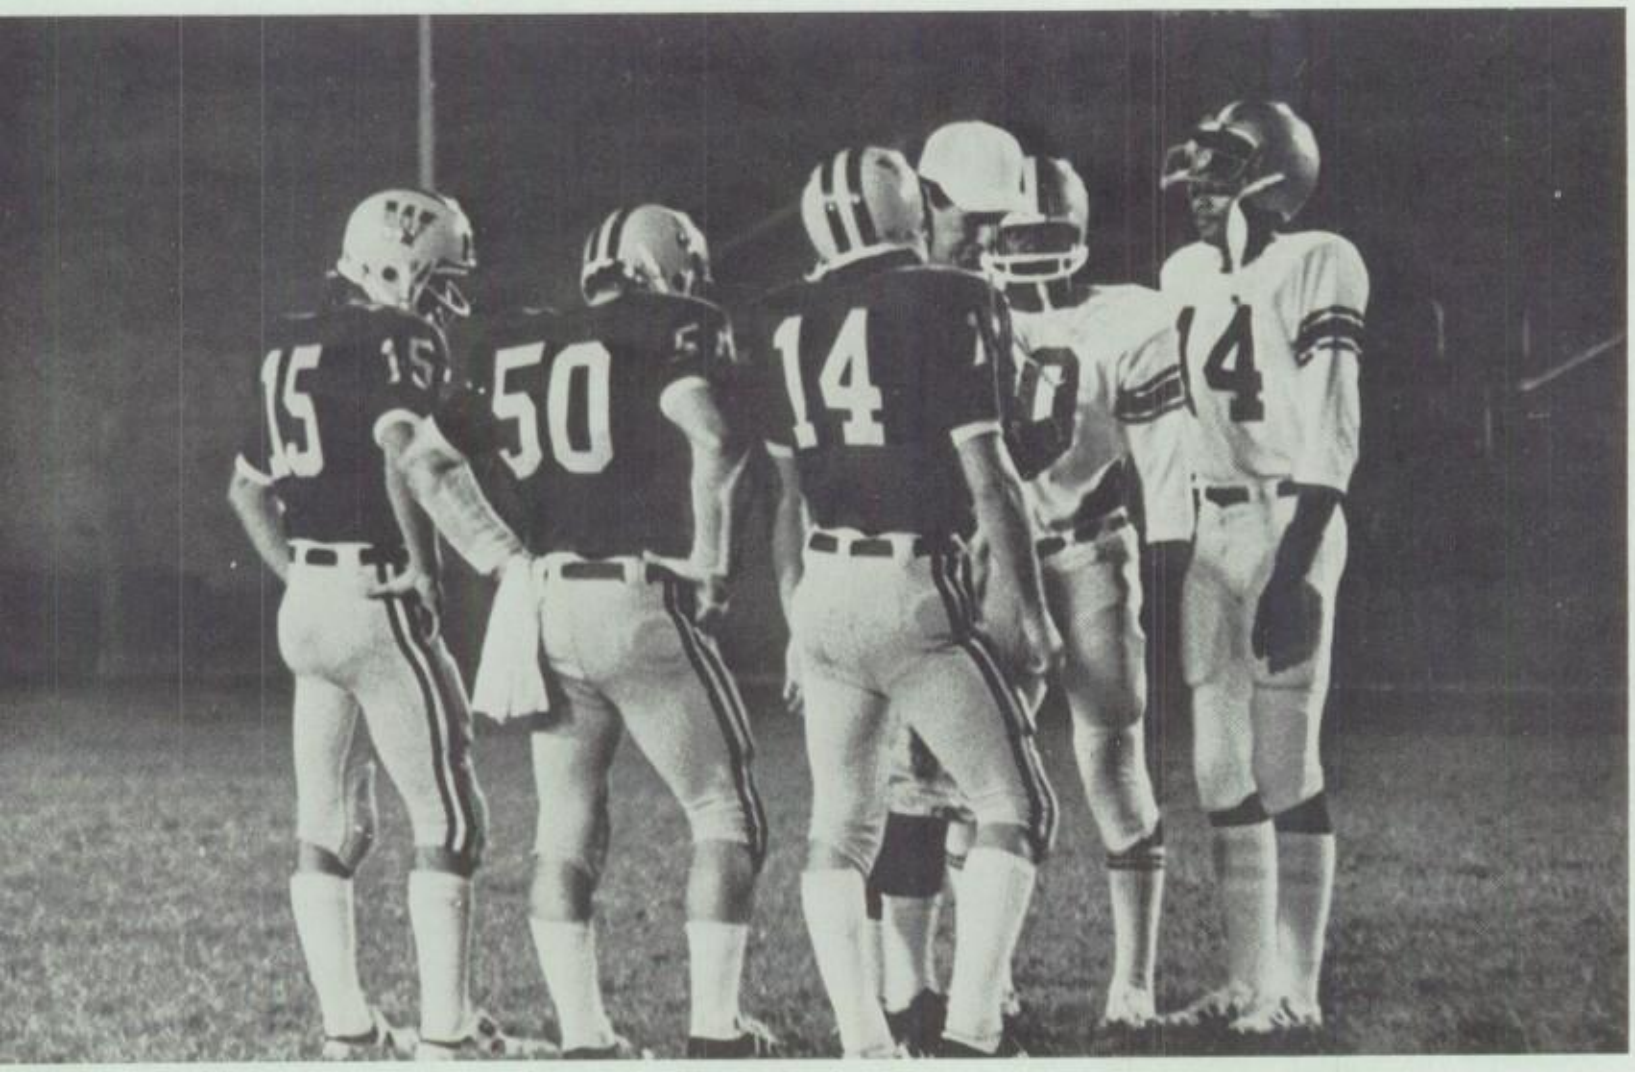
Varsity Produces Consistent Record





Opening the 1973-74 season against O. D. Wyatt, the Cougar Varsity displayed a well balanced offense which resulted in a 20-6 victory. Inspired by their success, the 33 member team found themselves traveling the road to Odessa. Backed by spirited fans, the trip ended in a discouraging 35-0 defeat.

In a defensive battle against Eastern Hills the Cougars were finally able to break the scoreless tie. Rodney McCoy scored both touchdowns as West beat East 14-0. One week later with a change in the offense the Cougars played their fourth game against a fast Dunbar team. The Cougs let the Wildcats sneak by them 18-15. In the last pre-district game, Hills waded around in a flooded Farrington Field to a 0-0 tie.

The Varsity football squad was coached by four talented men. Head Coach Dale Walker, End Coach David Helbing, Back Coach Ronnie McClain, and Line Coach James Thames together put the players through rugged daily workouts. Their competent guidance aided in victories over Wyatt, Eastern Hills, Paschal, and Carter.

October 19 found Hills at Farrington Field, charged up for a Homecoming bout with Arlington Heights. The Cougars were fired up for the first of the game but were unable to get the offense running. Only able to put seven points on the scoreboard by a pass to Rhett Hubbard, the Cougars lost their first Homecoming game 37-14. Defensive Lineman Joe Tucker had 9 tackles and 1 fumble recovery.

Still fighting for a position in the district race, Western Hills found themselves matched against Paschal in their next game. With pride at stake the Cougs battled to a 3-0 decision behind a hard hitting defense. Mike Sandoval's 24 yard field goal scored the only points of the game. Outstanding defensive player, Jack Thiebaud received the Head Hunter award from the coaches for his alertness and clutch tackles. Thiebaud was the fourth player to achieve the honor in Hills' six-year history. Rushing for 151 yards, John Malmberg was outstanding in the offensive back field.

Cougars End District 2-3

The Cougar's hopes for district were knocked down by a well balanced Southwest team. Penalties held back the offense, while the defense failed to stop their offense. Bobby Candelaria took a kick-off back 94 yards for a touchdown. Steve Elliott and Larry O'Brien initiated the most tackles. The outcome was 27-14.

Carter came into the game looking for their first district win, only to find a forceful offense. With two touchdowns from Rodney McCoy added to John Malmberg's 129 yards and one touchdown, the game was easily won. The defense only allowed seven points against them with the final score 34-7.

Ending the season with a 21-0 loss to Northside, the Cougar Varsity finished up 4-5-1, 2-3 in district.

JV Experiences Losing Season

Hampered by numerous injuries, this year's Junior Varsity experienced a losing season. Hills and Northside went into the last district game with the young and inexperienced Cougars still looking for their first district win. Few mistakes, good hustle, and determination ended in defeat during the final quarter, 21-19. Under the combined leadership of Coaches Riley Dunn and Bill Witcher, the 43 member team ended their season 0-10.

Freshmen Show Promise

Under the direction of two new coaches, Jim Sanders and Kenneth Walker, this year's freshman team finished with a 3-7 record. Although not experiencing an over-abundance of wins, the team character reflected determination. Preparing for each game with early morning workouts resulted in victories over Wyatt, Poly, and Carter.

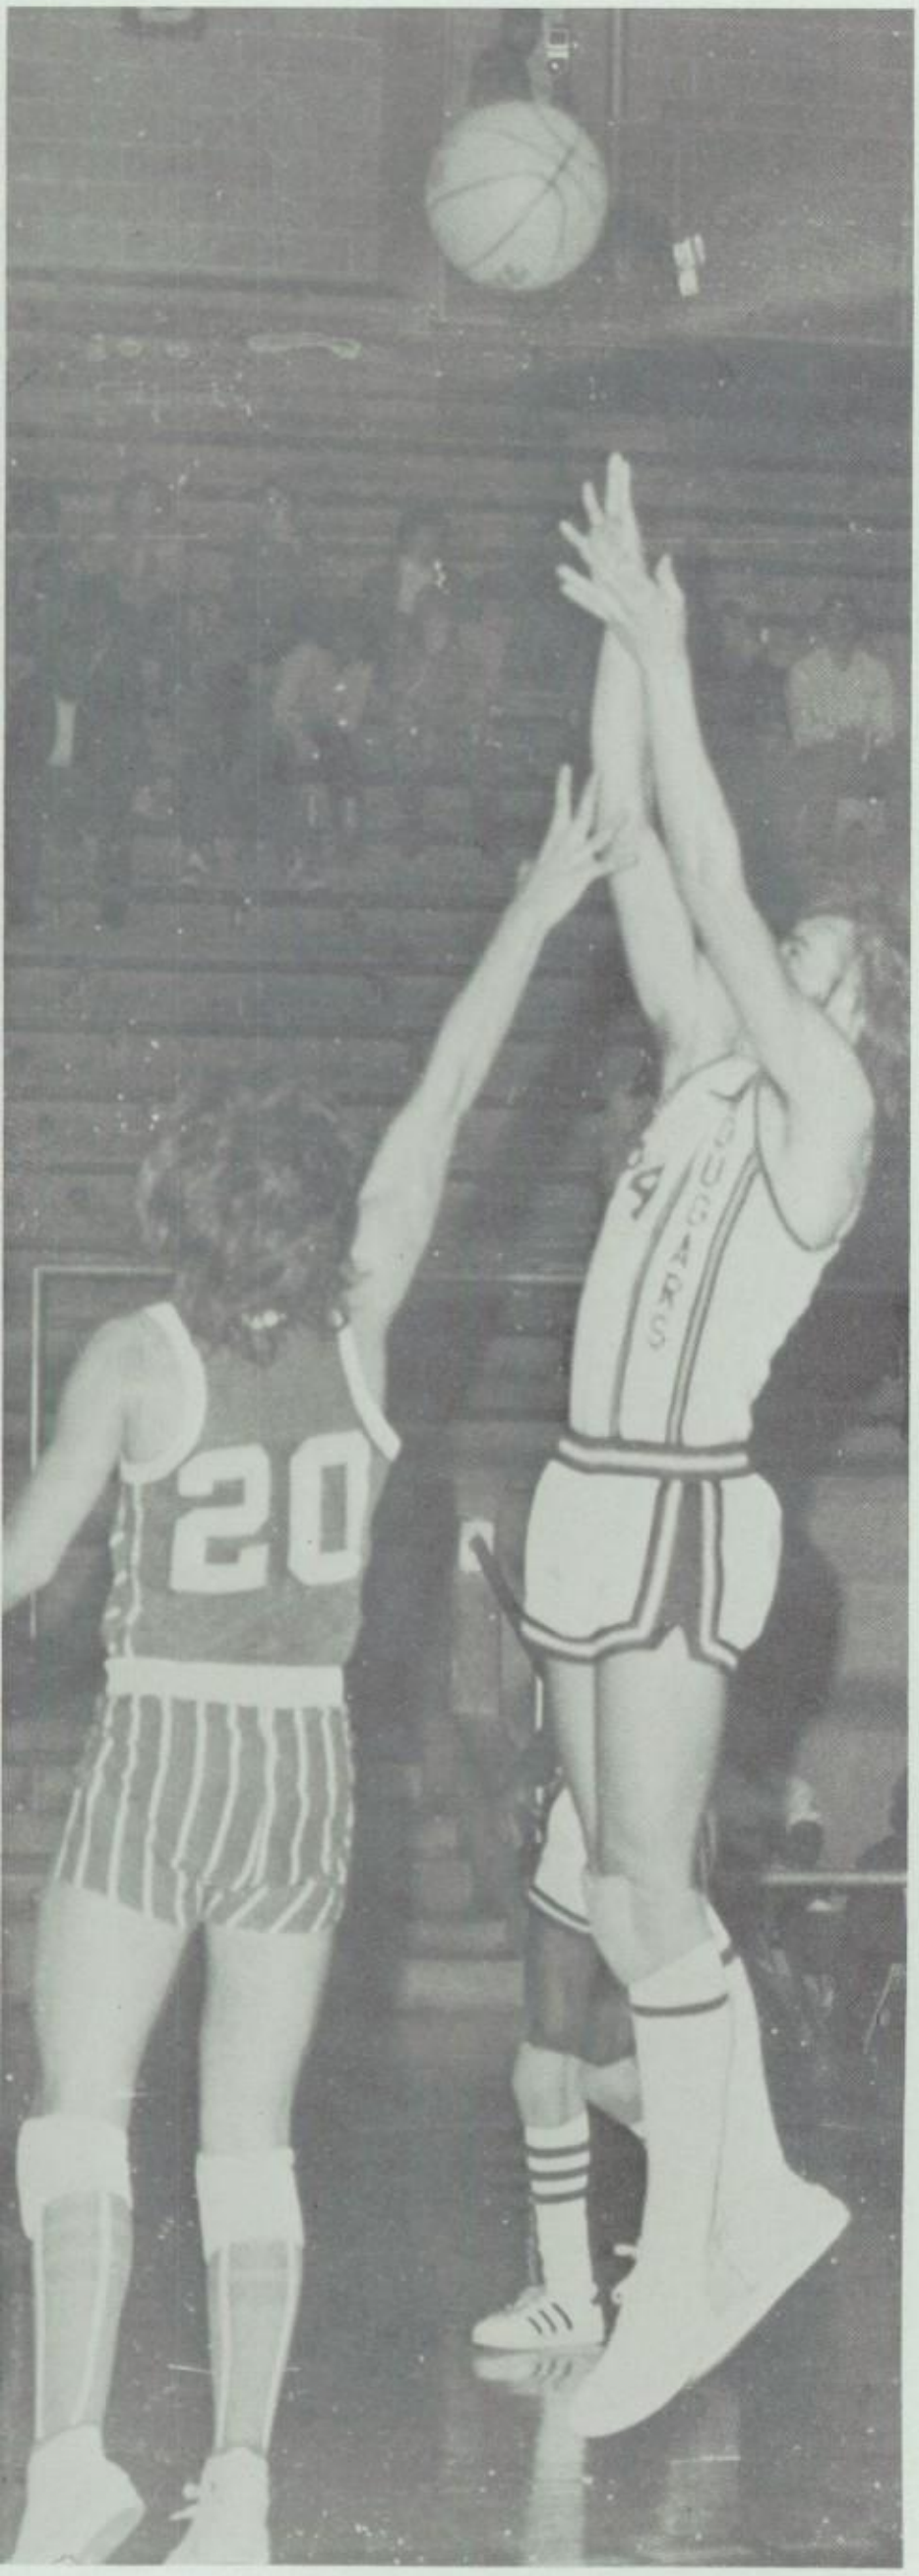
Cagers Produce Best Record Ever



Starting the 1973-74 season Coach Richard Allie anticipated a great year. Laying out goals and objectives to strive for, Coach Allie started the team toward the district championship. Throughout the season the 14 man team played hard and with determination. Experiencing his second year of head coaching, Coach Allie's team compiled the best pre-season and overall record in Hills' history.

Varsity Victorious in Tournament Play

During the pre-season games the varsity put together a 15-5 record, winning in every tournament entered. In the Kimball Classic the varsity placed third by beating Duncanville High. After losing the opener to Trinity in the TWC Tournament, the team returned with the consolation trophy. Over the Christmas holidays the cagers played in the Lion's Club Tournament at Public Schools Gym. After upsetting O. D. Wyatt in the first game, the team lost to district rivals Southwest by three points. Finishing the tournament by capturing third place, they also brought home the Sportsmanship award.

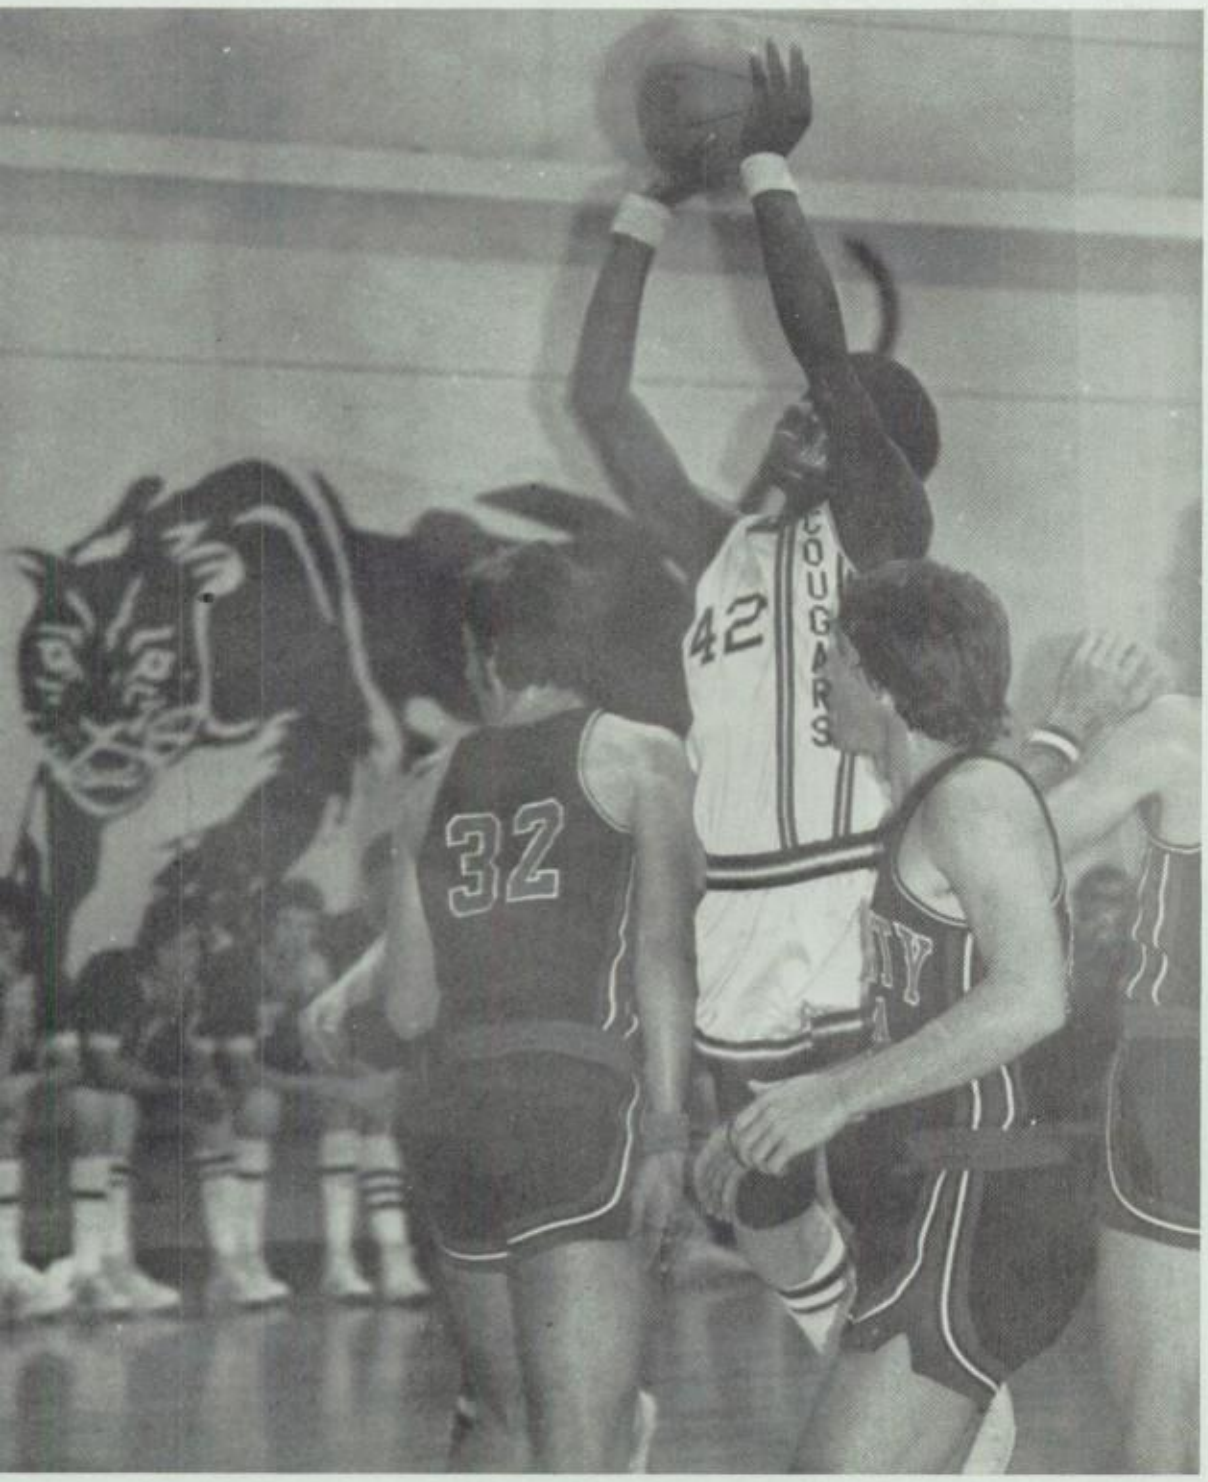
Cougars Clench First Half Championship



January brought district, and the hopes for a championship for Western Hills. Jumping off to a good start by defeating Northside, Southwest, and Carter, the roundballers were on their way to the first half championship. With only Arlington Heights and Paschal standing in their path the Cougars went on to defeat Heights with the most points scored by any basketball team, 92-55. On January 16 the undefeated Cougars up-ended Paschal 68-65.

Already clenching the first half with a 5-0 record, Hills was guaranteed a shot at the district crown. The second half ended up to be tougher as the cagers lost to Southwest, 56-57 and Paschal, 84-63.

Playing for the first time in a playoff, the fired up Cougars met defeat at the hands of the Rebels.

JV Finishes District 8-2

With an 8-2 district record, this year's Junior Varsity team finished in second place behind Paschal. Coach David Helbing worked his 13 man team every evening to polish up their fundamentals. Throughout the year the squad found themselves smaller than all their opponents but still finished the season with a 19-9 record.

Varsity Eyes District Title

Cougar track team members were out to capture the 4A-10 championship for the second consecutive year. Competing in several pre-district meets, the cindermen prepared for the district meet held in April. Mr. Riley Dunn coached this year's varsity along with the junior varsity and freshman teams.

Outstanding medalists were Rhett Hubbard, 220 yard sprint, Keith Newby, 440 yard run, and Chris Dills, half mile. Randal Anderson and Steve Brown were high contenders in the discus and shotput.

JV Feature Sophomores

Working hard during practice, this year's junior varsity put in a good show at the meets. With a team consisting of mostly sophomores, the squad hoped to win the district title.

Frosh Learn Competitive Spirit

Freshman track team members gained valuable experience through participation in various meets. With 20 members on the team, the frosh fought hard in every event. Along with actual field participation, the young cindermen aided in the Western Hills Invitational Track Tournament by keeping time and organizing events.

Teams Unite for Victory

Working as a more integral group this year, the tennis team achieved the highest honors in Western Hills' history under the coaching of Mrs. Lea Martin and Mr. Charles Hall. Tournaments played during the year were at Garland, Irving, L. D. Bell, and Wichita Falls. At the Arlington tournament the team was awarded the Good Sportsmanship plaque. The Trinity tournament proved profitable for the tennis team as they won the third place team trophy.

Proving to be one of the more successful tournaments, the Weatherford competition highlighted the year with several individuals bringing home trophies. Mark Miller and Tim Scoggins captured the boys' A-Doubles division title. Lana Ragland won second in girls' A-singles, and Cheri Lee and Patty Self succeeded in taking second in the girls' A-doubles division.

Team Prepares for Winning Season

Varsity baseball started the year with new uniforms and different personnel. Filling the vacancies were last year's junior varsity members and several freshmen. Coach Ronnie McClain led his team through rugged workouts to get in shape for district play.

This year's pitchers were Paul Brooks, Jim Davis, Steve Phillips, Jim Scholl, and Roy Wilson. The outfielders consisted of John Cason, Jim Davis, and Bill Ribinskas.

JV Has Productive Season

Inspired by the coaching of Mr. James Thames, the junior varsity baseball team started their 1974 season. With a mixture of freshmen, sophomores, and juniors the B-team practiced hard for the beginning of district. Pitchers Cliff Schliecher, Matt Smith, and Russell Wallace started the team on their way by winning the first three ball games.

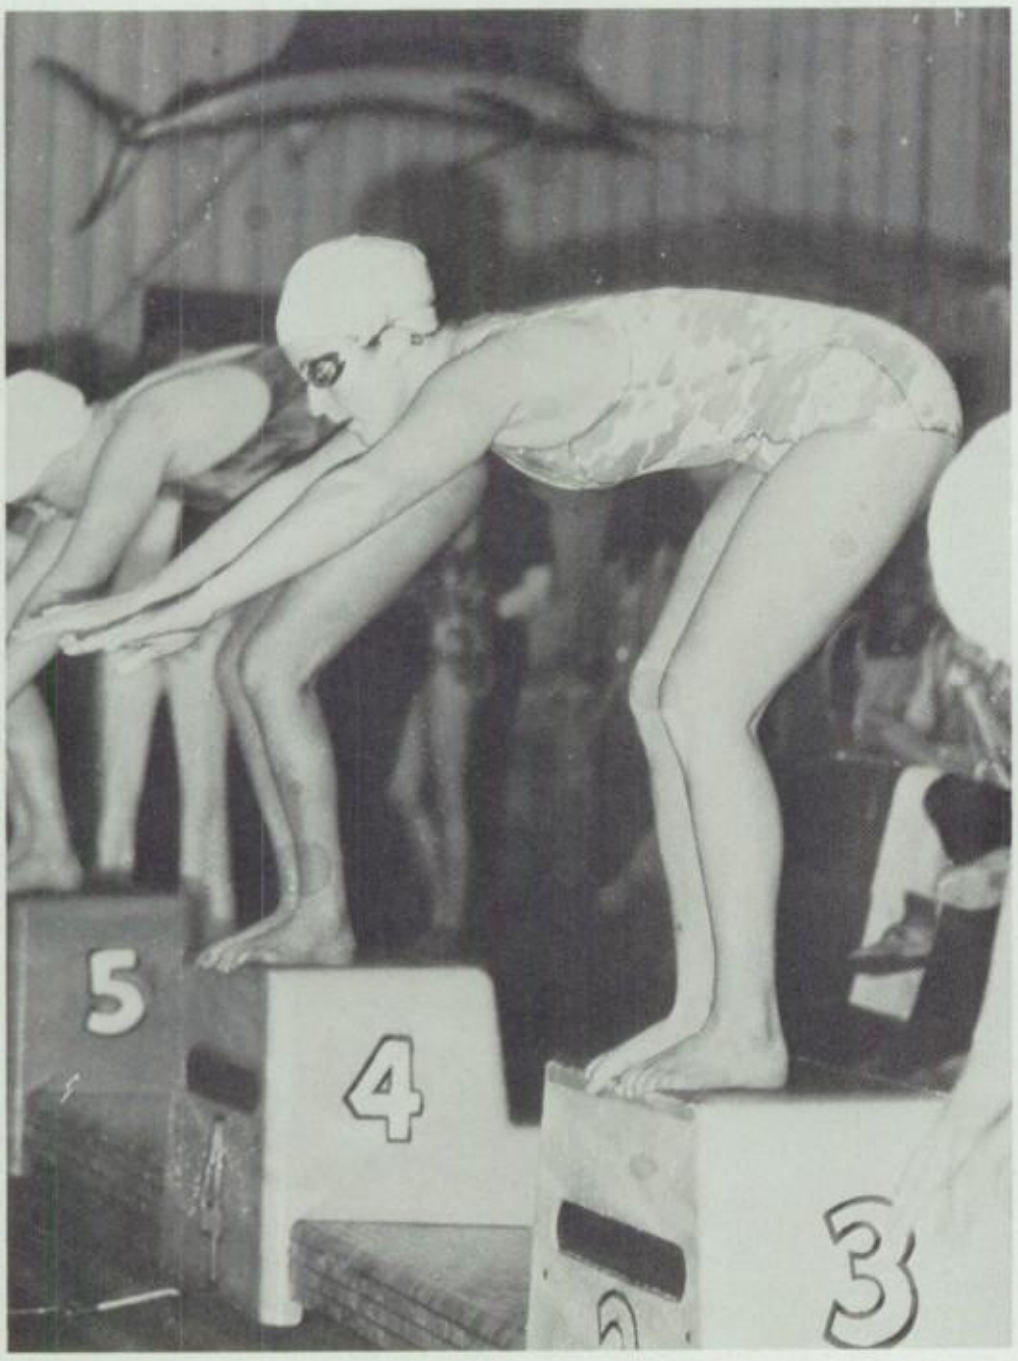
Swimmers Capture City Title



Under the sponsorship of Coach Mike Morris, this year's swim team finished first in the city. This title had previously been dominated by Arlington Heights and Southwest. Team members were victorious in meets against five other area high schools. Other meets included Trinity Relays, SMU Relays, and TISCA. As a result of their efforts, in February the girls won the first place trophy in the city meet while the boys took second. Regionals were held on March 1 and 2 with Steve Hench qualifying for State by winning first place in the 100 yard butterfly. The girls' relay team also qualified by winning second in the 400 yard freestyle.

Linksters Rank High in Tourneys

Coach Robert Dixon's 1974 golf team proved to be the best in Hills' history placing well in all tournaments. The linksters won at Arlington and Wichita Falls and moved on to the Regional meet at Denton in April. First teamers Randy Berkovsky, Gene Doelling, Mike Goulet, Steve Howard, and Jim Smith joined 33 other golfers in regular workouts at Carswell, Rockwood, Pecan Valley, and Z Boaz golf courses.

Sports Program Increases

Girls' sports expanded this year with the organization of a track team. The girls competed in several meets with many outstanding feminists bringing home medals. Coached by Mr. Kenneth Walker, the girls worked out during fifth period.

Along with track, the volleyball team fared well this year. Capturing second in the Southwest tournament, the team also placed fourth in the TWC tournament. Mrs. Lea Martin sponsored this year's team.

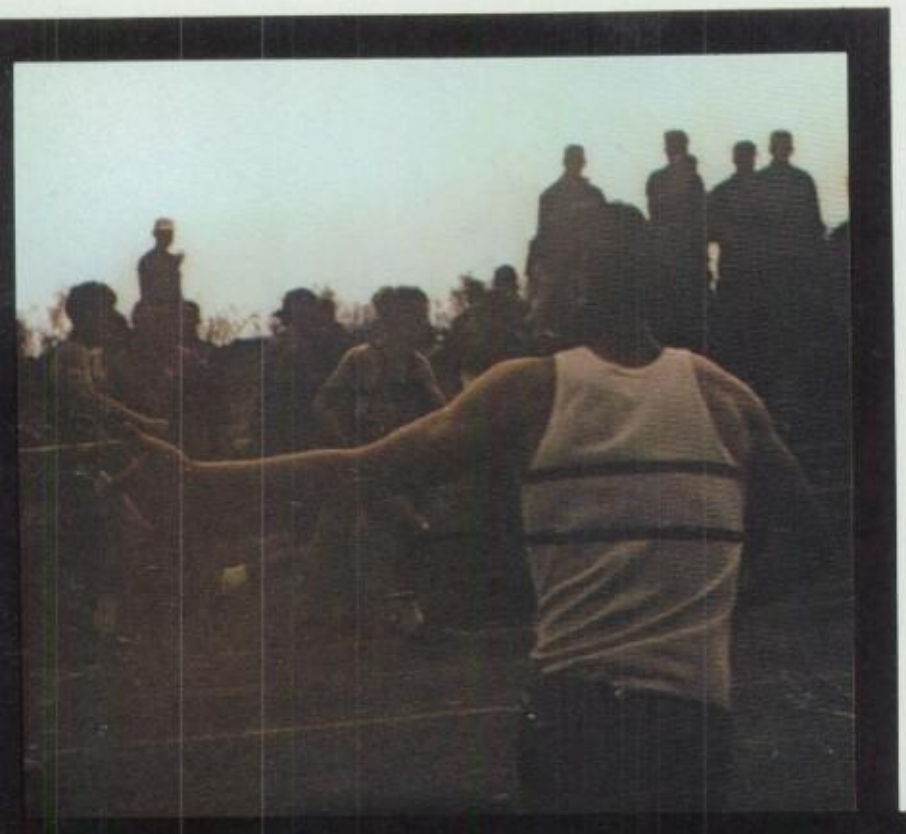
Mr. Bob Lynch and Taylor Publishing Company for the production of the yearbook.

While you are young you will think it will never have an end: but behold, the longest day has its evening, and you shall enjoy it but once; it never turns again; use it therefore as the springtime, which soon departs, and wherein you ought to sow all provisions for a long and happy life.

Sir Walter Raleigh



Keep true to the dreams of thy youth.
